

Backstage Loft Zermatt, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the fabulous master bedroom, encased in a glass box, within a traditional Swiss stadel – it's a work of art.

Stylish and set in a stunning location, the Backstage Loft is a truly unique property. This luxury ski chalet in Zermatt is the creation of the renowned artist and designer Heinz Julen – a typically Swiss building with uber-modern twists. The chalet is decked out in furniture, furnishings and art from Julen's own studios in Zermatt, bringing a real home-from-home atmosphere to the striking, minimalist interiors.

The stunning open-plan kitchen and dining space have a fabulous woodburning stove as their focal point. This space is housed in a double-height room, with smaller rooms on both floors encased in glass, so you're able to look into both the cosy living room and luxe bedrooms from the main living space – the architecture here is as much a work of art as the pictures hanging on the walls.

From the comfy tweed-upholstered, Gothic-style chairs around the dining table, you can also look out onto the mountain through enormous floor-to-ceiling windows. In the warm and welcoming living room, wood floors, rustic furniture and comfy sofas piled high with faux fur throws create a relaxing spot in which to cocoon yourself with a glass of wine and a good book. Additionally, a Jacuzzi tub and TV room ensure there is plenty of room for everyone to relax and find space for themselves.

Each of the luxury bedrooms is designed with all the comforts and mod-cons you'd expect from a high-end hotel in mind.

Eating

Food and drink will be a highlight of your stay at Backstage Loft as your chef is from the two Michelin star restaurant 'After Seven'. When you arrive a meeting with your chef to discuss the weekly menu will ensure that everything is served just your tastes and that everyone's whims are catered for throughout your stay at this luxury ski chalet.

Each morning you will enjoy a delicious cooked and continental breakfast before heading out to the mountains. On your return an afternoon tea will be waiting and ready to warm you up and help whet your appetite before the evening's meal. For six evenings you will enjoy champagne and canapés followed by a three course evening meal, all prepared by your personal chef.

With a selection of wines, beers, spirits and soft drinks you'll never be short of a drink or two either and the hot tub at this luxury ski chalet offers the perfect spot from which to enjoy your favourite tipples.

Your chef has one night off a week which allows you to try the local cuisines and eateries in Zermatt.

Kids

The chalet is great for families with children of all ages. Those with babies are well catered for. Cots and highchairs are available on request and babysitting can also be arranged.

The indoor/outdoor Jacuzzi will definitely provide hours of fun for the children after a day on the slopes. And when they're ready to settle down, you can put them in front of a film in the TV room, a perfect place to keep them occupied while the grown-ups enjoy drinks and canapés in the early evening.
