

Apartment Bleuets Courchevel 1850, France

What we love...

That fabulous mountain view from the balcony at dusk. Best served up with some melted camembert and dipping bread, and a generous glass of vin chaud.

As if Courchevel 1850 wasn't upmarket enough, this luxury duplex apartment takes it up a notch; perched as it is in the resort's prestigious Hameau de Bellecôte area. Located right on the slopes, with a south-east-facing terrace, the sensational mountain views are the first attention-grabber here at Apartment Bleuets.

On the outside it's all ski chalet tradition, with ornate wood trim and terraces. Inside, however, is a different story: although its classic rustic charm emanates, it also screams contemporary chic, with luxurious soft furnishings, animal-fur tiles on the walls, and a large, geometric open fireplace.

Full of soft lights and over-sized candles, and woollen throws strewn across the deep sofas, it's as cosy as it is plush, and makes for a very warm welcome to the Alps.

With a well-equipped kitchen at your disposal, cooking is a pleasure here – although if you choose to hire a chef you won't have to think about it, as they'll do all the work for you. In the meantime you can relax in the living area with a DVD and a glass of wine, hit the steam in the Hammam, or soak up the evening sun on the terrace. It's an easy life at Apartment Bleuets.
