

Chalet Aline

Verbier, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the private outdoor seating area off the master bedroom, the perfect escape!

If you're looking for the perfect blend of designer elegance and authentic Alpine charm, look no further the beautiful Chalet Aline.

This stunning self-catered ski chalet in Verbier is arranged over three floors, with each level having a spacious, south-facing terrace or balcony offering spectacular views over the Combin mountain range - the ideal spot for an early morning cup of freshly-brewed coffee or a nightcap beneath the stars.

The real star of the show as you enter this luxury ski chalet is the gorgeous open-plan living and dining room, where light pours through the floor-to-ceiling French windows and doors. This is a wonderful family room with rustic wood beams and a huge, comfy sofa and chairs arranged around the roaring wood fire - the perfect place to cosy up with a mug of hot chocolate (or something stronger!) after a day on the slopes.

If you need to unwind a little more, Chalet Aline has its own hammam complete with mountain view, along with four beautifully appointed bedrooms. The master bedroom on the top floor has a private outdoor seating area and there's also a spacious TV room - the perfect hide-out for children to watch a movie while the adults catch up on the day's events over drinks.

A chic yet practical ski room with boot warmers, ski lockers and its own entrance from outside completes the picture for the perfect luxury ski holiday.
