

Chalet Chopine Meribel, France

What we love...

We love the waterproof remote control in the private spa, giving you the power to dim the lights, control the hot tub jets and the temperature at the touch of a button. Just float away at the end of a perfect day at sumptuous Chalet Chopine.

Chalet Chopine takes traditional Alpine charm and gives it a Hollywood makeover. Lavishly fitted out with pale wood panelling, rustic carvings, and swathes of luxurious fabrics, it is both plush and cosy. And best of all, there's a spa in the basement where skiers and non-skiers alike can feel revitalised. If you want chalet within a short walk of Meribel's lively centre, then this ticks all the boxes.

With five double bedrooms and ample living space, Chalet Chopine makes the perfect base for two sharing families, or one large group of family and friends. Take your pick of the five dreamy bedrooms, the biggest of which are on the top floor, and sink into a world of pampering.

The Chaudanne lift hub is a short distance away, but it's nice to know that you have a shuttle service if you need it, especially for family groups with weary children whose little legs have reached their limit. Heated boot warmers in the ski room ensure that heading out to the slopes is a pleasure every morning.

Chalet Chopine is the perfect option for guests looking for a relaxed catered experience, offering comfort family meals. After dinner, feeling replete and at one with the world, you can retreat to the TV snug to watch a film, or finish the evening with a soothing massage or a relaxing spell in the steam room.
