

Chalet Chouqui Verbier, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the entertainment space here. With a 15 metre pool, Hammam, TV room, cinema, gym and more, there is never a dull moment.

Everything you could hope for in one of the most exclusive ski areas in the world. Chalet Chouqui does not disappoint.

This luxury ski chalet in Verbier has enviable views out over the Mont Blanc massif, which is best enjoyed from the property's extensive outdoor terraces with dining area for up to twenty people.

And the views inside are equally impressive. Designed by London interiors specialists, using John Cullen lighting and custom-made British furniture, Chouqui has a sophisticated gentleman's club feel. Herringbone weaves and faux fur throws alongside warm, rustic woods bring texture and character to the super smart interiors.

Chouqui is made up of two interconnecting chalets spread over 900sqm so there is plenty of room for everyone to both socialise together as well as to enjoy their own space. When you have returned from your morning's ski, you might like to retreat to the spa to enjoy the Hammam or relax in the beautiful 15-metre swimming pool. Alternatively, take popcorn and drinks to the private cinema for a film matinee.

Two sitting rooms, each with their own roaring fire, are heavenly spots in which to sit back with a drink in hand and take in that fabulous mountain view, while catching up with the rest of your party. A team of dedicated staff are always on hand to make sure that dinner is served exactly as you like it, every glass is kept topped up and every super comfortable bed is turned down in every luxury en-suite bedroom. From your first cup of coffee in the morning to your last glass of champagne in the evening, your every whim is taken care of at this luxury ski chalet in Verbier. All you have to do is relax and enjoy it.

Eating

High-quality, locally sourced ingredients are the basis of the menus here. Each morning, you'll wake to a delicious breakfast and when you return from your day on the slopes, you'll find afternoon tea and cakes waiting to warm you through and welcome you back to your luxury ski chalet.

Dinner is kicked off with drinks and spectacular canapés followed by a fabulous four-course meal. Fine dining is generally the order of the day but if you would prefer a lighter meal or simply good old-fashioned nursery food in front of the TV you have only to say.

Specially selected house wines have been chosen to compliment the menus with everything from European bottles to New World classics. Complimentary house champagnes are available throughout your stay, too.

During your stay, you'll have two evenings to sample the local restaurants of Verbier on staff's days off and your chalet host will be more than happy to make recommendations and bookings.

Kids

This is a wonderful chalet for kids to enjoy. When they're not on the slopes, they'll find plenty to do at home, from the indoor swimming pool to the wonderful cinema room.

The quad bunk room is an ideal hideaway for children to share – a retreat they'll be happy to head to at bedtime.

Cots and highchairs can be provided and childcare can be booked on request. Your chef will be happy to prepare a separate children's meal each evening.
