

Chalet Grace Zermatt, Switzerland

What we love...

Enveloped in supreme luxury, surrounded by spectacular views, with a cinema room and pool table. What's not to like?

No, you are not dreaming. The heart-stopping views, amazing architecture and luxurious décor of Chalet Grace is real. This luxury ski chalet has a superb location in the Petit Village area of Zermatt, a car-free Alpine paradise.

Facing across the valley, Chalet Grace has stupendous views which are framed by enormous floor-to-ceiling windows. The vaulted ceilings, constructed in blonde wood, blend with achingly cool interior design to make a swoon-inducing cocktail.

Opulent furnishings and divine antique pieces make this one of the most beautiful chalets in Zermatt. It has features to die for, including a TV/home cinema room, wellness area, outdoor hot tub and a dedicated relaxation room for yoga or pilates with gym equipment.

Describing Chalet Grace as 'fully catered' does not do it justice. With a personal team of highly trained staff, including a world class chef, the guests are truly cosseted. Champagne, mouth-watering meals and fine wines flow freely. Spirits and soft drinks too – whatever hits the spot.

After an invigorating day on the slopes there is nothing better than a glass of bubbly, tasty canapés and a soak in the hot tub before tucking in to a dinner of gastronomic dishes and local delicacies. Individual requirements and special requests are not a problem – this is service par excellence.

Anything from a relaxing massage to a private ski guide to in-chalet childcare can be arranged.

Childrens' dinners are included, and daily newspapers and fresh flowers add a homely touch. The staff are there to provide everything you could wish for, so that your stay in Zermatt is pure, unforgettable, off-the-scale luxury.

From the open plan, top floor lounge with its grand stone fireplace, to the beautifully furnished outdoor living space, Chalet Grace has tons of style. Just lay back in front of the fire and gaze out at the iconic peak of the Matterhorn. Sshhh.....if you listen hard enough you can hear the snowflakes falling gently on the mountains.

Eating

With a highly trained chef in the kitchen whipping up irresistible treats, there is always the danger of over-indulgence. But not to worry – the Chalet Grace team can tailor meals to your requirements, whether super-healthy or super-extravagant.

Nothing but the best fresh seasonal produce is on the menu. Delicious canapés, gourmet dinners and scrumptious desserts all help to make your stay a gastronomic delight. And whatever your tastes, or special diet, nothing is too much trouble.

Breakfast, afternoon tea and dinner is included, as are the specially selected wines, house Champagne, spirits and soft drinks. For an extra cost, the a la carte list offers a wide range of superior wines and Champagnes from around the world, including the best local Swiss wines. If there is a particular drink that you would like order – just let the staff know in advance.

Chalet Grace

Kids

Children arriving in Zermatt can imagine they have stepped into a fairytale. The breathtaking views of crystal snow caps and star filled night skies cannot fail to mesmerise. Tobogganing, ice skating and indoor climbing are some of the exciting activities they can try. Of course, ski lessons and childcare can be arranged.

They'll love being out and about in town, where the only traffic is horse-drawn sleighs and electric buggies. Zermatt has plenty of excellent, family-friendly restaurants, and taking a trip up the mountain for lunch is a great adventure.

Your chef can prepare delicious children's suppers to fit into their routines and demands of fussy eaters can be accommodated – it's all part of the superb service at Chalet Grace.
