

Chalet Ivouette Verbier, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the family snug – a cosy little space for kids to play away from the main living areas, or for grown-ups to retreat to with a glass of wine and a book.

Wonderfully located and beautifully appointed, this luxury duplex apartment is situated close to the heart of Verbier and the Medran ski lift, which are both just a short walk away. It's also a very short walk to the gentle buzz of Verbier's bars and restaurants so you can always pop out for an evening drink if the fancy takes you.

Inside, there's plenty of space to be sociable, making it a great choice for groups of friends or family. The spacious, open-plan living and dining areas are decked out in neutral shades and honey-coloured woods for a friendly and welcoming feel. Comfy sofas are gathered around the fireplace, inviting everyone to sit down and catch up after an adventurous day on the slopes.

Take your morning coffee or evening tittle out to the fur-lined chairs on the terrace, where you can sit under blankets looking out at the rooftops of Verbier and the Mont Blanc massif beyond. Better still, wait until no one is looking and sneak down to the snug for half an hour in your own company with a book and the roaring fire.

After a day of energetic skiing and serious pampering in the sauna, you should sleep very well. But just to make absolutely sure of that, the en-suite bedrooms have all been designed with your ultimate comfort in mind. Snuggle under heavy duvets and soft throws – there's a whole new day waiting for you in the morning on your luxury ski holiday.
