

Chalet Kanzi St. Anton, Austria

What we love...

The spa on the ground floor of the building, with indoor pool - the ideal spot to ease aching muscles after a few hours on the slopes.

The long awaited dream of an award winning architect, Chalet Kanzi is a joy to behold. This four-bed luxury ski chalet in St. Anton, set over two floors, offers the ideal combination of privacy, with hotel-style wellness facilities and social areas.

Nestled in the tranquil Nasserein area with gorgeous views over Rendl hill and just moments from the ski lifts, this stunning and stylish property marries together everything you could ever want from a St. Anton luxury ski chalet.

The contemporary living space, with natural wood and slate, perfectly setting off the sophisticated grey scheme, is a wonderful place to relax post skiing, enjoying drinks and canapés and catching up on the day with friends or family. Alongside is a cosy dining room with refectory-style table, for communal meals, all lovingly prepared by your private chef. After dinner, you and your party might want to sit in front of the roaring fire with your port and local cheeseboard, or take your drinks out onto the terraces to watch the lights twinkling in St. Anton.

If you're in search of a ski chalet with a pool, look no further than Chalet Kanzi. Guests of the apartment all have access to the beautiful wellness suite at the bottom of the building. Following a morning's skiing, and a hearty afternoon tea, take any aching muscles down to the steam room and sauna, or for a massage, and then freshen up with a dip in the pool before you head back to your apartment in time for dinner. A perfect end to a perfect day.

A hot breakfast will be served to ready you for a day on the slopes, and when you return home from your day's skiing, you'll find a slap-up tea waiting for you. On the staff days off, continental breakfast and afternoon tea will be laid out for guests to help themselves.

Drinks and canapés are served before dinner on five nights. Your evening meal is always something special – creative menus combined with high quality ingredients, local wherever possible and wines specially selected to complement each meal.
