

Chalet Milou Verbier, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the spectacular views over the mountains from the floor to ceiling windows in the living area.

The ultimate combination of smart design and top location make this luxury ski chalet in Verbier a champion in its field.

Chalet Milou is perched just above the Medran. Located in an 'almost' ski-in/ski-out location. You can ski back to within a few metres of your door at the end of the day and it is just a couple of minutes walk to join the piste.

Its height and floor to ceiling windows means this luxury ski chalet enjoys magnificent views from the living area with terrace as well as the outdoor hot tub which are equally awe-inspiring. The position of the property has clearly been carefully considered in its design to make the most of this wonderful spot.

In need of a little pampering after pounding the slopes for a few hours? Step into the steam room, or perhaps head to the yoga and treatment room for a relaxing massage. Feel like celebrating in style? The talented chef and team of staff are on hand each evening to serve Champagne and canapés and a fabulous meal against the backdrop of the stunning dining area with mountain views.

Or just want to kick back and enjoy some down time? The chalet is kitted out with plenty of tech, from a Wii to keep the kids busy to Apple TV and more. With a second private living area and a further TV snug, there is plenty of room to escape to or for the kids to have their own space.

Equally this is a property that is just made for socialising in - the dining area seats 12 comfortably, the spacious living room, with roaring fire as its focal point, is an inviting place to gather with friends for drinks in the evenings. That's not to mention the six supremely comfortable en-suite bedrooms, all supplied with luxury bath products, thick duvets and rustic throws and cushions to welcome you to your bed each night.

Brilliantly kitted out, thoughtfully designed and with so much here to keep everyone happy, don't forget to enjoy this chalet's simplicity, too. Take a glass of carefully selected champagne after dinner and step out onto the huge south-facing balcony in the dark, breathe in the mountain air and look up at the star-studded sky. Some things are carefully curated, created and designed for your pleasure. Others are just accidentally perfect. This is a chalet that has both in spades.

Eating

You'll be woken each morning to a delicious breakfast to set you up for a day on the slopes. Then, after you return home, you'll find afternoon tea ready and waiting for you.

Pre-dinner drinks and canapés will be served on five evenings while your chef prepares a four-course meal for you. High-quality, fresh ingredients and imaginative menus are the cornerstones here. However, if you prefer something lighter or less formal, you have only to say.

A selection of high-quality wines, Champagnes, beers, spirits and soft drinks are always available, too. There are a number of Old and New World wines that have been carefully selected to compliment the menus as well as house champagnes to include Perrier Jouet Grand Brut and GH Mumm Cordon Rouge.

Your chef will prepare a dedicated children's tea earlier in the evening so that kids don't need to be on 'best behaviour' during a long meal and you can relax and enjoy your dinner at your leisure post-bedtime.

Kids

Chalet Milou has been kitted out with all you'll need to ensure your stay is comfortable. Highchairs and cots can be provided so you can travel lighter and your chef is happy to cook a dedicated children's tea, certain to appeal to even the fussiest of fuss pots.

There's plenty for children to do when they're not on the slopes. The chalet is decked out with Wii and other games, Apple TV and a DVD library. There's a second living room as well as a TV snug which makes an ideal den for kids to escape to.

Childcare can be arranged on request so you can head off skiing, or for an evening out, on your own.
