

Chalet Montana Courchevel 1850, France

What we love...

We love the superb facilities; the wellness area with an indoor Jacuzzi and steam room. Plus the chalet is ski-in/ski-out. What more could you ask for?

You'll be hard-pressed to find a warmer welcome than the one you'll enjoy at Montana. As you approach this luxury ski chalet in Courchevel 1850, you'll get a glimpse of its gingerbread house good looks through trees and catch yourself really hoping that this is the chalet that's your home for the holiday.

Inside, rustic woods and rough-hewn stone bring natural charm to the well-appointed property. Before you explore, take that glass of bubbly from your host's hand, sit down in one of the vast, squashy chairs, and enjoy the roaring fire and welcoming living space. Everything has been finished to the high standards you'd expect, but quirky touches such as oversized floor lamps and handpainted frescoes give the chalet a 'real' and welcoming feel. Off the living space a cosy snug provides a bolthole to escape to with a book, and a south-facing balcony offers a wonderful outdoor space in which you can catch a bit of winter sunshine and enjoy the spectacular view.

With the Bellecote piste seconds from your front door, you don't waste a moment skiing. Yet, there's plenty to drag you back to the chalet each afternoon, from the cosy TV snug or dedicated cinema room to the wellness area with an indoor Jacuzzi and steam room. We can't think of many better ways to pass an afternoon.

At the end of each packed day, retreat to the cosy and comfy en-suite bedrooms, where you'll find piles of fluffy towels and robes as well as deep pillows and duvets you can lose yourself in.

Eating

With a talented chef and dedicated hosts to look after you, you'll know you will be well fed and watered throughout your stay here.

You can expect everything to be just as you like it, from the cup of tea you'll be brought in bed each morning, to the wonderful four-course dinner on five evenings. The little details are taken seriously here.

On arrival you'll enjoy a champagne reception, and drinks and canapés are served before dinner. Your chef will make it their mission to ensure all dietary needs are catered for. A hot breakfast will set you up for a day on the slopes, and when you trudge back through the door rosy-cheeked and happily weary, you'll find a slap-up afternoon tea waiting.

Dinner is a highlight with creative menus combined with high quality local ingredients and selected wines to complement each meal. We recommend you order your ski jacket one size up.

You'll have two evenings a week to sample the local restaurants and your chalet hosts will be more than happy to make recommendations and bookings.

Chalet Montana

Kids

Children will love haring around the open-plan living spaces of Montana and little people are made most welcome here.
