

Chalet Rosalp 4 Verbier, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the the central location of this luxury ski chalet.

Perfectly placed close to the centre of town, and beautifully designed, this winning ski apartment is an ideal base for a group of family or friends.

A hint of Highlands style in the tartan prints, and a nod to mid-century style in the furnishings make Chalet Rosalp 4 just a little different from other luxury ski chalets in Verbier.

From the cosy living room, you have wonderful views out to the mountains in the distance, which have been maximised with enormous windows. The log-burning stove in the corner makes this a lovely, warm spot to cosy up with friends over afternoon tea while you catch up on the events of your skiing day.

Adjacent, is an open-plan kitchen and dining area, a convivial space where you can enjoy watching your chef hard at work while you enjoy the fruits of his labour.

There's plenty of space to play and big kids and little kids alike can be kept entertained with the stacks of board games (and also a Wii) for a good few hours on snowy afternoons.

If you should feel like venturing from your luxury ski chalet, it is a mere hop, skip and a jump (though perhaps not on skis) to both the lifts and the shops and bars of Verbier's bustling heart.

Eating

Your private chef will be on hand throughout your stay to ensure you are kept well fed and watered at all times, from cooking you a delicious breakfast to ensuring everyone has a nightcap at the end of the evening.

Afternoon tea will be ready and waiting for you on your return from the slopes and, later in the evening, canapés will be served along with your favourite tipples, while your chef prepares your four-course gourmet evening meal.

Of course, if you prefer something lighter or just more laid-back for dinner, you have only to say.

Alternatively, Rosalp 4 can also be taken on a self-catered basis, perfect for groups looking to be a little self-sufficient.
