

Chalet Sherwood Verbier, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the food and drink, which is definitely a highlight here, with creative menus and some very special house wines and champagnes.

Sociable, relaxed and stylishly appointed, a holiday at Chalet Sherwood feels like going to stay with great friends. Offered on a self-catered basis, this luxury penthouse apartment in Verbier is perfectly designed to share with a group.

Large, open-plan communal areas, wood-clad and high-ceilinged, provide you with enough space for everyone to kick back, relax and thoroughly catch up. When you're not on the slopes, the squashy sofas and comfy armchairs clustered around the open fire with hidden flat screen TV in the sitting room are the ideal spot to curl up with friends over afternoon tea in the twinkling of candlelight.

Downstairs is a dedicated TV room where you (or the kids if you're lucky!) can easily lose a few hours. The room is set up with Netflix and Apple TV as well as a huge DVD library and Wii with games. Faux fur throws and rugs make this a really lovely place for lounging and warming up after a few hours on the slopes and it can also double as a yoga room for those who take relaxation to the next level.

The stylish dining area has stunning views out onto the mountains and, if you prefer, you can eat at the al fresco dining area on the terrace. There's nothing like a bit of mountain air to help you work up an appetite, though if you need any encouragement the aromas emerging from the kitchen as your chef prepares your evening meal should do the trick.

Adjacent to the living space is an open-plan kitchen and dining area stunning views out onto the mountains. With its vaulted ceilings and comfortable seating, this space is perfect for long, sociable dinners (and many bottles of wine) late into the evening.

In the bedrooms soft, cotton sheets and piles of plump pillows await you. Your every comfort is catered for here. All you have to do is enjoy it.
