

Chalet Silver Verbier, Switzerland

What we love...

We love planning the day ahead from the south-facing balcony, morning cup of freshly ground coffee in hand.

When it's cold outside, there's just one place we want to be – snuggled up inside the luxurious Chalet Silver.

Designed by a highly regarded local architect and furnished with an exacting attention to detail, everything from the flow of the impressive open-plan living area to the finish of the bed linen has been given serious consideration.

Sleeping up to twelve in five bedrooms, Chalet Silver has space for everyone to relax as much as they wish. Take a soak in the hot tub on the south-facing balcony while watching the sun set over the mountains, glass of bubbles in hand, then stretch out in the shared sauna and Hammam, or unwind with a good DVD on the large TV screen with surround sound. Or simply relive the day's adventures while taking a soak in your en-suite tub accompanied by some sounds from the Sonos music station.

To complete the comforting charm of Chalet Silver stag antlers adorn the natural stone fireplace and fur rugs are scattered throughout, while lots of gnarly wood brings a warmth to the chalet that is complemented by the character of the exposed beams.

With exquisite service by a team of staff to round things off, it'll be hard to tear yourself away from Chalet Silver to hit Verbier's slopes.

Eating

Everyone knows that food and drink on a ski holiday is nearly as important as the snow, so take heart in the menu of feasts and treats available at Chalet Silver.

From a cooked and continental breakfast of fresh bread, croissants, fruit and cereals accompanied by espresso coffee and freshly squeezed orange juice to set you up in the morning, to homemade cookies and cakes when you return from the slopes, you'll be well sated before you've even sat down for dinner.

Your private chef will be working for you five of the seven days and will prepare a menu to entertain and enthrall you, starting with canapés served by the roaring fire, moving on to four courses at the candlelit table, before being rounded off with a specially selected cheese board.

And all this can be washed down with a selection of complimentary house wines, spirits and your favourite beers.

Alternatively, Chalet Silver can also be offered on a self-catered basis if you prefer.

Chalet Silver

Kids

Chalet Silver welcomes kids with open arms – for starters, they'll love the possibilities for fun that the four-bunk bedroom will provide, then when they've exhausted that there's the roaring log fire and curve TV to loll in front of.

And to make sure the parents get as much of a holiday as the kids, there is a team of drivers on hand throughout the day to whisk them off to ski school, and babysitting can be arranged if you wish to sample some of Verbier's legendary nightlife.

Cots and highchairs can be arranged on request.

Location

Chalet Silver is a three-minute walk to the centre of Verbier, and a just a few minutes chauffeured drive to the Médran lift.

The nearest airport is Geneva, approximately 2 hours drive away.
