

Chalet Valhalla Chamonix, France

What we love...

We love the double-height living area, with its majestic fireplace and amazing mountain views.

When you've got a fabulous location, you should make the most of it, and make the most of it Chalet Valhalla certainly does. This luxury ski chalet in Chamonix is a stroll from the town centre yet peacefully located just slightly away from the crowds, next to the forest. But the best aspect of its location is the fabulous mountain view it affords, which is jaw-droppingly spectacular.

From your squashy sofa in front of the fire in the double-height living room, you have a picture-perfect view of the snowy peaks through floor-to-ceiling windows, and a mezzanine area above it ensures the views are fully taken advantage of. Presided over by a fabulous open fire and a rather characterful moose's head, you certainly won't struggle for a talking point.

The chalet has been thoughtfully and tastefully designed using high-quality natural materials for a luxurious, laid-back feel. Pared-back Scandi-chic style sets off the light-filled dining room perfectly and there's even a sunny terrace that's an ideal spot for taking in that view over a morning coffee.

After your morning on the slopes, your warm and cosy chalet, with afternoon tea laid out for you is a welcome sight. If you finish your homemade cakes quickly, you might just have time for a relaxing dip in the outdoor hot tub or soothe aching muscles in the barrel sauna.

Each of the seven bedrooms is restful and ultra-comfortable and has its own en-suite bathroom for a little pampering before dinner each night. Dinner is a gastronomic affair and good food and wine is one of the cornerstones of life at Chalet Valhalla. You can be sure of retiring to bed replete and relaxed.

Eating

A filling continental breakfast including porridge, cereals, pastries, fruit and yoghurt is provided each morning, to fuel you before you step out onto the snow. When you return from the slopes steaming pots of tea and coffee and homemade cakes will be waiting for you.

On five evenings, your private chef will prepare a mouth-watering four-course feast for you, using the finest local ingredients wherever possible. House wines are served with the meal but there is also a fabulous chalet wine list you can choose to upgrade to if you wish.

Your chef will prepare early children's tea in the evenings, so adults can enjoy a more relaxed meal later on in the evening.

You'll have two evenings a week to sample the local restaurants in Chamonix and your chalet host will be more than happy to make recommendations and bookings. There is also Michelin-starred restaurant, Albert 1ier is just round the corner.

During winter season, Chalet Valhalla can also be booked on a bed & breakfast basis, giving you the flexibility to set your own schedule. For summer period, this luxury chalet is offered on a self-catered basis.

Chalet Valhalla

Kids

Children receive a warm welcome at Chalet Valhalla and everything is done to ensure life is as easy as possible for families.

Outside, the chalet is surrounded by vast open space where an army of snowmen can be built and snowball fights to be had. When they're ready to trudge back inside, they can get cosy in the separate TV room for a movie night.

All the bedrooms can be configured as twin rooms, giving you maximum flexibility no matter how many small guests you have in your party.

Cots and highchairs can be arranged on request.
