

Chalet Le Roch Courchevel 1850, France

What we love...

We love the direct access to the exclusive spa and indoor pool.

The very epitome of the word 'cocooned', Chalet Le Roch is a total retreat from the real world. This impossibly cosy apartment on four levels, set within the five-star Le Saint Roch hotel is a one-off. The luxury ski chalet in Courchevel has been designed with an amazing attention to detail. Rough-hewn woods and stone give it the look of a rustic Savoyard barn but fabulous-quality furnishings and thoughtful extras bring an added sense of luxury that makes it quite unique.

Beds are piled high with faux fur throws and plump cushions, antique pieces of furniture are set off by modern design statements and artworks, even the en-suite bathrooms are individually designed in alligator, mother of pearl or metal. This is a wonderful property to share with friends – huge, squashy leather and velour sofas crowd around the open fire and a long, lacquered dining table give you and your party lots of space to relax together, eating, drinking and catching up, while you are waited on by your private butler.

The chalet has direct access to the exclusive hotel spa and indoor pool on the basement level, meaning you could very happily not leave the building all week... so you're fortunate that the apartment is also exceedingly well located, close to the glamorous bars and restaurants of Courchevel and with direct access to the Bellecote piste. Life couldn't be easier than it is here at Chalet Le Roch.
