

Hidden Dragon Veysonnaz, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the combination of feng shui principles and traditional alpine architecture to create an oasis of tranquility where you can forget the stresses of everyday life.

As you drive down the private road towards the Hidden Dragon chalet, its secluded setting and rustic charm could persuade you that it is a traditional luxury alpine chalet.

Step through the door, however, and you will soon realise that this stunning, inspirational chalet is anything but conventional. Within its walls, ancient feng shui principles fuse harmoniously with contemporary design and rare antiques to create a truly unique ambience.

Alongside the modern elegance and Eastern promise reverberates a cosy, casual vibe that encourages guests to relax and feel completely at home.

There are numerous communal areas that are perfect for spending special times with family and friends. The living room, for example, is fitted with a bespoke copper fireplace that adds warmth and atmosphere to any gathering, while the chic Hidden Dragon dining room offers a beautiful setting for evening meals.

And after a day on the slopes, Hidden Dragon's ski-in/ski-out "Gents-Club" style ski-room, furnished with vintage leather chairs and a well-stocked après-ski bar, is sure to be a welcome pit stop.

Don't linger too long, though, or you will have no time to pamper yourself with a visit to the chalet's outdoor hot tub, hammam or sauna, or to let a masseur or beautician soothe your aching limbs or preen you to perfection.

For those in search of a bit of me time, the uninterrupted views over the Rhone Valley provide a beautiful backdrop to the Jardin d'hiver.

Alternatively, why not curl up with a good book in the glass mezzanine library that overlooks the living room, or marvel at the stars from the hot tub after dark?

Film buffs meanwhile, there is a private cinema room to spend leisurely afternoons in.

Hidden Dragon

Rooms

The 6 en-suite bedrooms in Hidden Dragon all of which house super king-size beds that can be transformed into comfortable twins upon request.

All bedrooms are equipped with Egyptian cotton sheets, pillow menus, under-floor heating, televisions and DVD players.

And each one is named after an auspicious celestial animal, such as the snow lion or the brown cow, to bring good luck, happiness and prosperity to its inhabitants!

Eating

Only the finest produce, including seasonal ingredients sourced from ethical and local suppliers, makes it to the Hidden Dragon table, where hearty breakfasts, teatime treats, evening feasts and irresistible petit fours are all on the menu.

For lunch, guests are encouraged to experience the fine alpine cuisine on offer in the excellent mountain restaurants throughout the 4 Valleys region.

In the evening, you can enjoy anything from a formal meal to a family supper in your pyjamas.

But as darkness falls, why not start the evening with cocktails on one of the chalet's multiple balconies. There's also an open bar to include wine, beer and spirits if you feel like something else. Alternatively, indulge in a premium vintage from the a la carte wine list.

Once you have savoured the private chef's delectable creations, why not retire to the comfortable sitting room for a delicious digestif? You are on holiday after all...

Chalet Hidden Dragon can also be taken on a self-catered basis.

Hidden Dragon

Kids

Babies, toddlers, children and teenagers – there is something for all of them at Hidden Dragon.

The lodge's proximity to an abundance of outdoor activities makes it an ideal family holiday destination, especially with the dedicated Hidden Dragon team on hand to ensure both kids and parents enjoy a fun, relaxing break.

And if they are tired, or just want to stay indoors, the cinema room is ideal for hunkering down with their favourite film and of course a hot chocolate.

Nannies and babysitters can be arranged on request.
