

L'Apogee Penthouse Courchevel 1850, France

What we love...

We love the amazing view from high up in the outdoor hot tub looking out over Courchevel.

At the very top of a stunning building...on top of a former Olympic ski jump, this luxury ski chalet in Courchevel 1850 brings new meaning to the words 'high standards'.

The beautiful penthouse apartment is part of L'Apogee Hotel, the facilities of which guests of the penthouse enjoy exclusive access to during their stay. Facilities include spa cabins, indoor swimming pool, Hammam, sauna and fitness room. In short, it offers the best of both worlds: all the privacy of your own luxury ski chalet, yet with all the convenience and high levels of service of an exclusive hotel.

The property has been beautifully decked out by French interior designer, India Madhavi, who's used tactile soft furnishings such as faux furs and plaids to create a warm and cosy atmosphere with a hint of gentleman's club and a sprinkling of Highland style here on the slopes. Your butler will serve meals in the quietly stylish wood-clad dining room, then after dinner, retire to the sophisticated sitting room to enjoy after-dinner drinks in front of the fire, or perhaps take them out onto the terrace to your private hot tub.

Elsewhere in the chalet is a large media room with video on demand – the perfect place for you to enjoy a group movie night – just ask your butler to supply the popcorn!

From the top of this beautiful building, on your private balcony, you have one of the best views in Courchevel. Come with high expectations. You won't be disappointed.
