

La Maison de Manville

Provence, France

What we love...

We love the location, right on the golf course, so you can be teeing off moments after breakfast.

Hidden away on this beautifully peaceful estate, this luxury villa in Provence is a retreat from the world, and golf enthusiasts will be in seventh heaven here.

Nestled with just a few other villas almost on the golf course of this exclusive estate, the villa feels very secluded, yet is not far from all the services and facilities you would expect from a luxury hotel, including a spa and gourmet restaurants.

Once a farming estate, the Domaine de Manville has undergone a fabulous conversion by top architects and designers, to create a retreat with a real sense of history. The stone villa's interior is stylish and contemporary, with designer furniture and furnishings giving it a unique feel. A spacious living and dining area, with fireplace to gather around on chillier nights, opens out onto a terrace with outdoor furniture – the perfect spot to enjoy sundowners before dinner.

The property shares a heated swimming pool with the handful of other villas nearby, and there is lots more to enjoy in the great outdoors here, from cycle trails to nature walks and much more. And if you feel in need of further rest and relaxation, pop over to the estate's own spa where you can enjoy use of their indoor or outdoor pool, or an afternoon of total pampering.

Rooms

The villa sleeps six people in three bedrooms.

Bedrooms one and two
Double bedrooms; en-suites with bathtub and shower.

Bedroom three
Double bedroom; en-suite shower room.

There is also a 4 bedroom villa available for larger groups.

Eating

As part of the Domaine de Manville estate, the villa's guests may make the most of the estate's wonderful restaurants. Breakfast is served under the glass atrium of the Winter Gardens. Fruits, cereals, breads and pastries are served alongside artisan jams and honey from the estate's hives, and hot breakfast options are also available. You can also have breakfast delivered to your villa (for an extra cost).

The Bistro is ideal for a lunch or laid-back evening meal, serving rustic Provencal classics and light options. For a more fine-dining experience in stunning surroundings try The Restaurant, where local ingredients and skilled chefs combine for a truly gastronomic experience.

If you prefer to eat in the privacy of your villa, you can either opt to have the fridge stocked for you on arrival, order room service from the 'in-villa dining' menu, or employ one of the estate's private chefs.

Kids

There's lots going on for little ones on the Domaine de Manville estate. A children's club is in operation from June to October, based in two vintage gypsy caravans under pine trees. A team of experienced nannies are also on hand should you wish to hire them, to read stories, catch butterflies, build dens and everything in between. The estate is criss-crossed with cycle tracks and nature trails that the whole family will enjoy, too.

The villa has a shared pool with another eight exclusive villas on site, and children will enjoy making friends at the pool.

Extra beds and cribs for young children are available on request.
