

Villa 12, La Reserve St. Tropez, France

What we love...

We love the outdoor pool area- perfect for relaxing on a warm sunny afternoon.

Light, airy and traditionally conceived, this pretty property on the exclusive La Reserve estate offers the best of both worlds. This luxury villa in St. Tropez enjoys a wonderful location looking out over the sea and is close to the glamour and bustle of St. Tropez itself.

Set around a private heated pool, with lovely outdoor living areas, Villa 12 offers a true al fresco living experience. From the pool area, wander down through the landscaped gardens to a pine forest and the sea beyond. It's a really peaceful spot in which to walk alone or enjoy a few drinks with friends as the sun goes down and the evening starts to cool.

Inside, four luxe, en-suite bedrooms are cool and comfortable. Light, neutral interior décor makes the communal spaces feel really relaxing and sociable. The professional kitchen and spa-style bathrooms are the icing on the cake of this lovely interior.

What really makes the difference at Villa 12, however, is the experienced staff, always on hand to ensure everything runs smoothly, and the fabulous facilities in the main hotel building – from the Michelin-starred restaurants to the luxury spa. It's a level of service befitting one of the world's most sophisticated locations.

Eating

Great food is a key part of your experience here. Every morning you will be served a delicious breakfast in your private villa, and come the afternoon freshly baked pastries await. For lunch and dinner private chefs can be arranged to cook for you in your villa for the duration of your stay. There's also an in-villa catering service available, which includes tapas, drinks and barbecue food.

Villa 12 is set within the grounds of a luxury spa hotel, where the Michelin-starred 'La Voile' restaurant serves a fabulous Mediterranean menu, in a stunning location under 'sail' style canopies looking out to sea. The restaurant sources its ingredients locally wherever possible, often from the hotel's own kitchen garden.

If you want to escape further afield you have only to let your housekeeper know and reservations can be made for you at any of the wonderful local restaurants.
