

Villa Aurelia St. Tropez, France

What we love...

We love the prime St. Tropez location of Villa Aurelia, right by Pampalonne beach!

Perched on the edge of land right by Pampalonne Beach, in a hectare of beautifully landscaped gardens and with 180° views of the sea, this is a villa that enjoys the best of what nature has to offer.

Contemporary and stylish, Villa Aurelia is a luxury villa in St Tropez that has been created using designer furniture, bold curves and splashes of vivid colour to reflect its stylish and colourful location on the Cote d'Azur.

The villa has a fabulous open-plan living space, with modern lounge flowing into a sleek and chic kitchen, equipped with everything you could need. There's even a walk-in fridge and pair of wine fridges, too. The whole space has wonderful views out to sea, which you can enjoy reclined on the chairs or close-up, playing pirates through the telescope in the living space.

Each of the luxury bedrooms has a TV hidden in the mirror and an iPad to control the air-conditioning and blinds, so you can tailor the bedroom to create your perfect space for sleep.

But it's the outside areas that make this property really special. A private helipad means you can be whisked straight to the property with its large gardens, with 30 olive trees, beautifully lit up by night. The generously sized heated pool is surrounded by loungers and outdoor armchairs to encourage you to get down to the serious business of relaxation.

And if you should find all that peace and quiet too much, Pampalonne Beach and the famous Club 55 is just a short walk away, waiting to extend you a warm welcome.
