Villa CView
St. Jean Cap Ferrat, France

What we love...

We love feeling like we're flying above the ocean, whichever way we look. And having not one but two pools to indulge in.

A glass box in the sky. That's one way to describe Villa CView in St Jean Cap Ferrat. Strikingly geometric and modern, much of this property is made of glass, and to be inside it is to feel like you're hovering in the air above the ocean and the lush green mountainside.

Villa CView is a multi-level property with interior and exterior lifts linking floors. Modern in décor, pale granite and cool-coloured soft furnishings meet warm wooden floors and inviting sofas. Almost everywhere you go, the view of the sea floods in through walls of glass.

Outside there's plenty of space to play and a fabulous swimming pool surrounded by lush garden. You can dine right here if you like. As if one swimming area wasn't enough, there's also an indoor pool right next to a small gym area and sumptuous spa with hammam, sauna, shower and massage room.

Dining at Villa CView is a treat, with views of the ocean on three sides. And after dinner, the expansive lounge and huge flat-screen TV beckon (although you'll still find it hard to tear your eyes away from the sea).

Villa CView

Kids

The split-level nature of Villa CView might not suit some families, but for many, the variety of space and facilities on offer will appeal. There's plenty of room for children to express themselves in, and they will love the pools – both of them.

And when they've tired themselves out, there's lots of places indoors to snuggle up and watch TV (or play hide and seek when they're feeling active again).

Meanwhile, in Cap Ferrat there are several lovely beaches, and snorkelling is available, too.

If you need them, we can arrange cots, highchairs and babysitting services at Villa CView.
