

Casa Biondi Tuscany, Italy

What we love...

We love the sunset views from the terrace at Casa Biondi.

As typically Tuscan as olive oil and cypress trees, this luxury villa with swimming pool on the edge of an exclusive estate is the perfect backdrop to a relaxed holiday with friends or family.

The mellow stone building sits in its own land and has been designed to allow for as much outdoor living as you like, with beautiful outside living and dining rooms under shady pergolas, and a pool that has its own well-appointed pool house so you can spend entire days relaxing there.

Inside, the luxury villa sleeps ten comfortably and has contemporary-rustic living spaces that offer cool shade and plenty of comfort. The living room wingback chairs and sofas are gathered around an imposing Tuscan fireplace, and a refectory-style dining table allows you all to eat inside together if you wish. There's even a reading room where you can while away an afternoon in the peace and quiet with a pile of books.

There's a feeling of real peace here as you look out over rolling hills and forests, yet you're only a pleasant stroll away from the main 'borgo', church and castle of the Rosewood Castiglion del Bosco estate, with its restaurants, sauna, steam room, and other facilities.

Eating

Food, as is the case all over Italy, is one of the cornerstones of Casa Biondi.

An in villa chef service gives you your own private chef and waiter so you can enjoy fabulous local cooking without leaving your villa. Your chef will be on hand to prepare everything from light lunches to five-course dinners and special occasion cooking. The service is completely flexible.

The estate on which the luxury villa is situated is home to two wonderful eating spots, Ristorante Campo de Drago, which serves Italian cuisine alongside the estate's own wines. The interiors are neutral and contemporary, and if you eat outside on the terrace you'll enjoy a wonderful view of the hills and woodland below. Then there is the more casual trattoria, Osteria La Canonica, serving traditional Tuscan dishes. Both benefit from ingredients picked from the estate's own kitchen garden and a rustic, local menu.

There is also a delivery service to your villa if you prefer, which includes a kids' menu.

If you want to take a flavour of your holiday home with you, you can even take part in cookery classes at the estate's cookery school.

Casa Biondi

Kids

The chef will be happy to prepare special child-friendly meals for you, or you can order from the kids' in-villa delivery menu.

The villa has lots of outdoor space and the kids will love the infinity pool with its own pool house.

There are two twin bedrooms which would be ideal for children to share.

The estate has a fantastic kids' club, which can be accessed freely. There are also structured lessons available in swimming, tennis, cookery, archery and much more besides – the astronomy sessions are a highlight.
