

Villa Cerise St. Tropez, France

What we love...

We love the interior design – the white walls and fabulous pieces of modern art hung on them make Villa Cerise a miniature private gallery.

Stylish, contemporary and stunningly located, Villa Cerise is just a little different to most luxury holiday properties.

Adorned with quirky, modern art pieces, this luxury villa with swimming pool has a unique look and feels much more like a beautiful family home than a holiday house.

The open-plan living and dining rooms are super-contemporary, with bold artworks on the walls and stylish, iconic pieces of designer furniture. The whole living space opens out onto the terrace, which is shaded with giant 'sails' and looks out over the swimming pool, making it the ideal afternoon retreat from the St. Tropez sun.

Like the rest of the villa, the bedrooms are all designed in the same shades of white, with a comfortable but minimalist look that makes for a really relaxing atmosphere.

After a day in the sun, floating in the outdoor pool and a fabulous meal as the sun goes down, you're sure to sleep soundly from the moment you slip between those luxury sheets and piles of feathery pillows!
