

Villa Ciara Mykonos, Greece

What we love...

We love the fabulous 'Playhouse' with table football, ping pong, home cinema and much more.

Some properties are just made for parties, and this luxury villa on Mykonos is the perfect backdrop to the most exclusive party you'll ever throw.

Enter the imposing estate up the sweeping driveway through landscaped grounds, or arrive by air and land on the private helipad, and you'll find a unique property beyond your wildest dreams. Much more than simply a luxury villa, Villa Ciara is a collection of upmarket designer suites, located in two wing areas, a gatehouse and a separate entertainment building. All of the sumptuous suites have a private terrace or balcony, others dressing rooms and study areas. All of them offer total privacy and somewhere to relax and pamper yourself with the plethora of luxury beauty and tanning products in each suite. This layout gives everyone all the privacy of their own hotel room, but with the sociable atmosphere of a large villa.

Two minutes walk from the suites is The Clubhouse, the entertainment and living wing of the estate, although there's no need to walk with 5 golf carts available for you to whizz around the villa grounds. An adult's playground, The Clubhouse offers all you could wish for to keep everyone in your party entertained, from a luxury home cinema to a basketball court, to table football and ping pong. There's a wonderful dining space for 20 inside and outdoors is an alfresco dining area for 18 under the pergola.

A short distance away is the striking infinity pool and beside it a bubbling heated hot tub. The pool offers some of the best views on the estate and is a lovely spot to lounge with drinks as the sun goes down. The mesmerizing fire pit with tiered stone seats carved into the landscape and scattered with inviting cushions is also a contender for sundowners- we reckon you could find a different spot each night to savour the iconic sunsets.
