

Villa Freda Amalfi Coast, Italy

What we love...

We love the indoor pool with window ceiling, making the pool visible from the rooms above.

This ancient villa in a rustic fishing village has been restored to its former glory and now offers a comfortable, relaxed home for those in search of sun, sea views and serious relaxation. Villa Freda is a luxury villa on the Amalfi coast, perched on the edge of the sea in Praiano, a pretty village between Amalfi and Positano. With less glitz and glamour than its neighbours, but no less charm, Praiano is a wonderful position from which to enjoy an authentic Amalfi experience.

Both indoor and outdoor seating areas are designed to make the most of the wonderful sea views. Whether you're enjoying your morning coffee on the terrace with the papers, or leaning on the balcony with a drink as the sun sets, the villa's outlook makes the experience something really special.

Inside the villa, frescoed ceilings and white backdrops, enlivened by bold splashes of colour in the artworks and soft furnishings, give a fresh, lively look.

The comfortable, airy living spaces are the ideal spot to relax and catch up with the rest of your party in the cool of the evening. The well-equipped kitchen is a joy to cook in and perfectly set up for cookery lessons and demonstrations, too.

Each of the bedrooms is individually designed and has private bathroom and luxury bath products to make even your morning shower a real pampering experience. And if you feel in need of even more pampering, head to the indoor pool to enjoy the jets and chromo therapy, or to the outdoor swimming pool to enjoy the sunshine and cool sea breeze.

Indeed the outdoors seems to pleasantly invade the interiors here, from the fresh, sea air to the heady scent of lemons, to the 'indoor gardens' of cactuses that occasionally surprise you as you wander through the house. In such a stunning location, there are few places on earth you'd like to encroach upon your holiday villa more.
