

Villa Maricela

Ibiza, Spain

What we love...

We love the peaceful location of this villa, set in protected natural parkland.

Make the most of Ibiza's natural beauty and enjoy its wildlife to the full in this modern villa set in protected parkland.

Villa Maricela is a luxury villa in Ibiza with private pool (20 metres long) from which you can enjoy this peaceful, semi-rural location. Whether you're floating in the pool, looking up at that deep blue sky, or reclining on one of the alfresco beds, enjoying the sun, there's no one else here to disturb the silence.

As you enter the property, into the kitchen, you get a wonderful view down the staggered-level rooms out to the pool and trees beyond. The well equipped kitchen leads down to a comfortable and stylish room as well as out to a dedicated outdoor dining space, nestled in the 'U' of the building, giving a little cool and shade, while you eat.

The living room, with its elegant, deep sofas, gathered around the contemporary fireplace and stylish buttoned chaise longue, is a truly lovely spot to sit and relax on chillier evenings or occasionally if the heat of the sun becomes too much in the middle of the day. Sophisticated furniture and furnishings bring a unique character to what is otherwise a thoroughly modern property.

The light and airy bedrooms, some with four posters, another with a whirlpool bath, all offer an ultra comfortable night's sleep as well as luxe en-suites. When you wake in the morning to the sound of the breeze in the trees, distant waves and... nothing else, we defy you not to feel utterly refreshed.
