

Villa Oliviera Tuscany, Italy

What we love...

We love the proximity of this luxury villa to the 'borgo'. It has quiet and privacy but the restaurants and spa are just a short walk away.

Once the home of the Castiglion del Bosco's olive press, Villa Oliviera would have been a central part of the estate... and it's very much at its heart today. Just moments from the spa and wonderful restaurants at the 'borgo' this luxury villa in Tuscany is ideally located. Despite being close to the action, the villa itself feels both exclusive and secluded.

Inside, a beautifully light living room with traditional stone fireplace is a cool and airy place to relax in the afternoons and if the weather should turn cooler, a roaring fire will transform it instantly into a cosy retreat. When you aren't eating outside on the spacious terrace, the dining room is a wonderfully sociable space in which to gather with friends or family. A large, Tuscan-style kitchen will impress food fans who are keen to get to work experimenting with local produce from the estate – and there's plenty of room for your private chef to be working on your evening meal at the same time.

The icing on the cake of this luxury villa, however, must be the infinity pool in the garden, with panoramic views of the stunning surrounding countryside – it's certainly a dip with a difference!

Eating

Food and relaxation are the cornerstones of life at Villa Oliviera, so options are flexible to make life as easy for you as possible.

An in villa chef service can be arranged to give you your own private chef and waiter so you can enjoy fabulous local cooking without leaving your villa. Your chef will be on hand to prepare everything from light lunches to five-course dinners and special occasion cooking. The service is completely flexible.

The estate on which the luxury villa is situated is home to two wonderful eating spots, Ristorante Campo de Drago, which serves traditional Tuscan cuisine alongside the estate's own wines. The interiors are neutral and contemporary, and if you eat outside on the terrace you'll enjoy a wonderful view of the hills and woodland below. Then there is the more casual trattoria, Osteria La Canonica, ideal for a light lunch or a pizza in the evening. Both benefit from ingredients picked from the estate's own kitchen garden and a rustic, local menu.

There is also a delivery service to your villa if you prefer, which includes a kids' menu.

If you want to take a flavour of your holiday home with you, you can even take part in cookery classes at the estate's cookery school and learn how to make everything from Tuscan favourites to fresh pasta.

Villa Oliveria

Kids

Children receive a warm, Italian welcome here and are made to feel right at home. The chef will be happy to prepare special child-friendly meals for you, or you can order from the kids' in-villa delivery menu.

The villa is blessed with lots of outdoor space for little ones to hare about in, and kids will love the infinity pool, perfect for splashing around in!

The estate has a fantastic kids' club, which can be accessed freely and provides a magical environment for imaginative minds to play and learn, enjoying everything from painting to treasure hunts.
