

Villa Panteleon Mykonos, Greece

What we love...

We love the film star quality of Villa Panteleon. It's the perfect venue for chilled out parties for beautiful people. Private and away from the crowds, right on the beach, it incorporates a self-contained guest apartment – perfect for both families and groups of friends.

Villa Panteleon is definitely an A-list villa, with designer furnishings and the kind of location that makes a great film set. Other Greek villas fade into the background when a star of this quality is in the picture. Not only does Villa Panteleon look fabulous, sitting in a prime position above Panormos Beach, but it's got a long list of indulgent extras to make it stand out from the crowd.

Admire the stunning sea views from the shady pergola stretching beside the infinity pool. Catch a whiff of fresh pizza baking in the wood-fired oven, and the local seafood grilling on the barbecue as your lunch is prepared.

Amble over to the poolside bar for an ice-filled cocktail to cool you down. Perhaps it's time for some laid-back tunes from the state-of-the-art sound system. What could be more perfect?

You can start every day with a session in your very own yoga pavilion, before tucking in to fresh fruit and coffee for breakfast and taking the most difficult decisions of the day. Will you go out on a boat today? Explore the beaches of Mykonos? Will you get comfy on a lounge at nearby Panormos beach? Or just stay within the heavenly confines of Villa Panteleon?

You know you are in a truly special place when every exquisite detail has been thought through, from ambient night lights around the pool to artwork on the walls and architectural potted plants. The soft whitewashed contours of the villa's walls blend perfectly into the Mykonos landscape, and the outdoor living area is carved out of the rocks.

Bedrooms are spread over the two floors of Villa Panteleon, and it has a self-contained apartment which makes the perfect pad for children. With a twin room, a super cool bunk room for four, and access to a playroom/TV room, plus an outdoor playground area, it's the perfect summer escape for families.

Eating

A private chef is available to rustle up delicious breakfasts and dinners each day of your stay at this luxury villa. It is so nice to be able to relax without having to plan the next meal, go food shopping and do all the preparation and clearing away afterwards.

It's also a real luxury when you have children, as a chef can whip up tasty kids' meals when they want them, which is often at different times from the adults. At Villa Panteleon you can chill out in the Greek sun whilst others marinade the meat for the barbecue and conjure up fresh tasty salads from local produce.

However if you prefer to cater for yourself, the beautiful Italian style open-plan kitchen, plus an outdoor kitchen complete with wood-fired oven and BBQ, mean you are spoilt for choice when it comes to cooking.

As well as arranging the private chef service Villa Panteleon can be pre-stocked with all your favourite ingredients, drinks and snacks for an extra charge. Just let us know how you would like us to look after you.

All food and drink is charged for separately.

Kids

There are play areas for all ages at Villa Panteleon. An open air playground is something you don't find at many other luxury villas, but this one is special. A double bunk room and a twin room on the lower floor are located within a self-contained guest apartment and opens out onto the play area – perfect for kids. It is also next to a TV room/playroom so when the sun is too hot, there is somewhere cool and fun for little ones to hang out in.

There's plenty of shade out on the terrace too, with a gorgeous pergola beside the pool. Summer holidays wouldn't be complete without the beach, and you can look out over the nearest one from the villa terrace. Panormos beach is just 800m away and is a fairly quiet spot for family fun.

The interior of the villa is spacious and clutter-free with stone flooring throughout and plenty of room to run around. If you need the villa to be equipped with cots, highchairs or other baby equipment just let us know. And if you would like to hire professional childcare staff, either full time or for occasional babysitting, this can be easily arranged.
