

Villa Pereza Marbella, Spain

What we love...

We love the combination of private pool, beachfront location and access to the shared luxury spa.

'Pereza' means 'laziness' in Spanish and that's exactly what's expected of you at Villa Pereza. This luxury villa in Marbella comes with everything you could possibly need for the perfect luxury villa holiday - without lifting a finger.

Set within the exclusive Puente Romano Beach Resort, you can enjoy access to the fabulous spa, 18-hole golf course, tennis courts and kids' club. Yet, close the door of your luxury villa and you are transported to your own private haven with a real sense of exclusivity.

A private pool, solarium and alfresco living area, means you can really indulge in the outdoor lifestyle here.

Inside, interior designer Jean Pierre

Martel's vision presents itself in a sophisticated and sleek style. A palette of whites and greys and a cool and airy look to the communal areas, combined with Greek marble throughout gives this luxury villa a contemporary feel. Ocean views from many of the windows bring the great outdoors right in.

As well as the living and dining spaces, there are four simply stunning suites, decked out with only the highest quality fixtures and furnishings. When you turn in for the evening it is to an ensuite bedroom with real star and spa quality.

Sleep well, lazy one!
