

Villa Periousia Corfu, Greece

What we love...

We love the never-ending terraces – sea views, outdoor lounging and dining areas and romantically lit walkways.

New England casual meets the outdoor island life at Villa Periousia. This luxury villa in Corfu with private swimming pool is set in an exclusive estate with just one other villa and the two can be taken together to accommodate a party of up to 16.

Inside, a cool, coastal look with rustic fireplace in the living room makes for an ultra-relaxing spot to curl up on the sofas with friends and family. The sofas look straight into the cosy fire, but glance back and you have a superb sea view. Each of the en-suite bedrooms is designed to be cool, calming and induce sleep. Most have terrace access so first thing in the morning you can throw open your doors to the sound of the sea and then retreat back to bed with your morning coffee.

The villa has stunning outdoor spaces. As well as the lovely private outdoor pool, shared tennis court and access to a secluded beach, there is a network of outdoor terraces set up for everything from gourmet dining to just sitting by candlelight watching boats bobbing on the sea. The garden and pool are both magically lit by night, meaning a dip under the stars is an absolute must.

Experienced and helpful staff will ensure that you want for nothing while you stay here. From arranging tennis lessons, boat trips to your perfect breakfast, everything is taken care of so all you have to do is sit back and enjoy the view.

Please note that during high season Villa Periousia must be taken with Villa Amala, which together make the exclusive Periousia Amala estate.

Kids

There's so much here to keep children entertained. The outdoor swimming pool will be popular on hot days and the grounds have private access to the beach. There's a jetty shared with the next door villa from which you can take boating adventures, and tennis courts supplied with rackets and balls.
