

Villa Renata Ibiza, Spain

What we love...

We love the long, narrow swimming pool, shaded by a row of trees – a great spot to indulge in a few lengths before breakfast.

Perhaps the perfect example of a marriage of indoors and outdoors, Villa Renata seamlessly blends luxe living and alfresco style. This luxury villa in Ibiza, out on the peaceful west coast, is a fabulous base for groups of friends or families, with wide open spaces and a minimalist style that allows you to really relax and spread yourself out.

Each en-suite bedroom is light and airy, whilst state-of-the-art technology adds an extra dimension of comfort. In the shared spaces, rustic woods and simple, contemporary furnishings give a cool, industrial feel with a hint of the outdoors ever present. And yet outside, comfy sofas and loungers make the garden feel as cosy and comfy as your own sitting room! You're often barely aware of making the trip from inside to outside and vice versa here. Floor-to-ceiling glass windows make the most of the spectacular panoramic sea views and rugged coastline.

To give you complete privacy and security the villa is set within an exclusive gated development. While there's lots to explore on the island, if you want to just hole yourself up in your own private paradise, there's nothing like a luxury villa with swimming pool and private cinema room to make it easy for you. Let your staff take the strain and sit back and enjoy this wonderful location and stylish property to the full.
