

Villa San Pietro Tuscany, Italy

What we love...

We love the wine cellar! Spend an evening hunkering down at the wooden table in the cellar working your way through some of the best grapes in the world.

They do say some of the best things come in small packages, and this perfectly formed luxury villa is no exception. San Pietro offers five-star quality on a small scale, making it the perfect escape for a family of four or two couples, who want a holiday that's just a little bit special.

Step inside the 12th-century stone walls and you'll find an interior that is stunningly beautiful in its simplicity and where no comfort has been overlooked. The airy living room with its oversized sofa and handcrafted shelves full of books is ideal for a bit of top-quality after-dinner lounging, while the hand-sewn leather recliners in the master bedroom offer the perfect spot for an afternoon snooze.

You'll also find bottle upon bottle of famous wines from the region at this luxury villa, (additional cost) as well as a few we can guarantee you'll never have tried.

Indeed, lovers of good food and wine will be well served at San Pietro, which boasts a state-of-the-art kitchen for preparing your Italian feasts. There's even a cookery school on site where you can learn how to create those rustic Tuscan dishes and delicate desserts.

Nestled in the heart of rural Italy in the pretty village of Castiglioncello del Trinoro, the property is cosy and private but also moments from the estate's boutique hotel, where guests can enjoy shared use of the hotel's indoor and outdoor pools, spa, wonderful restaurants and cocktail lounge with stunning views over the valley.

San Pietro has a little bit of magic about it. If you manage to leave here without briefly contemplating chucking in your life back home to pick olives under the Tuscan sun, you might just be the first person to do so.

Villa San Pietro

Rooms

Villa Muri Antichi sleeps 4 people in 2 bedrooms across two floors.

Each bedroom has a king-sized bed and an en-suite bathroom with rain shower.

Eating

Enjoy a complimentary breakfast of fruit, yoghurt, pastries and a selection of local delicacies served in the hotel restaurant each morning.

Your villa will be stocked with coffee and water, and refreshed daily, and there is a good selection of wines available to purchase, too.

There is a top-of-the-range kitchen at the villa. If you feel you need a bit of inspiration, sign up for private lessons with the on-site cookery school. A private chef can be arranged to cook for you in your chalet, too.

Should you wish to eat out, your concierge will be happy to book tables for you. Don't miss the opportunity to eat at Oreade, the hotel's own restaurant, for a true Tuscan farm-to-table experience.

Villa San Pietro

Kids

Children are welcome at Villa San Pietro. To enable you to travel lighter the villa can be equipped with cot, highchair, car seat and anything else you may need. Just ask.
