

Villa Sari Anguilla, Caribbean

What we love...

We love the private access to the beach and the beach pavilion right on the white sands of Long Bay.

A luxury Caribbean villa demands a highly exclusive location and Villa Sari ticks that box and then some.

The sea views from this luxury villa – particularly its balconies and pool terraces – are simply out of this world. Perched high above the beach at Long Bay, you have all the privacy you could wish for as well as private access to the white, sandy beach and beach pavilion where you can easily while away entire afternoons. Just steps away from your luxury villa, there's no chance you won't hear it when the rest of your party are popping corks and getting ready to start the party as the sun goes down! And its fabulous location puts it just minutes away from the renowned Greg Norman golf course, too, should the plethora of entertainment options on offer at Villa Sari not be enough.

There is certainly plenty to do to fill your days – from snorkelling to kayaking and paddle boarding. Not to mention the jewel in this luxury villas crown, the gorgeous private pool with terrace, from which you can admire the glistening sea views.

And when you need a little less action and a little more relaxation, the interiors of this luxury Anguillan villa are utterly calming. White walls and bright airy spaces make this beachfront villa a real bolthole, perfect both for large, convivial gatherings of family and friends as well as restful retreats.

Thinking of a big celebration? Villa Saffir and Villa Summer next door can be taken with Villa Sari to create an exclusive estate, and shared facilities including a rustic beach club house on stilts with birds-eye view of the bay and a large dining pavillion are perfect for large groups.

With staff on hand to attend to every last whim on your luxury villa holiday, grab your friends or a good book and enjoy them with a cocktail, a sunset view and the sound of Caribbean waves as your soundtrack. Total bliss.
