

Villa Stabbi Tuscany, Italy

What we love...

We love the pretty and welcoming pool house, which is as thoughtfully decorated as the main villa itself.

Perched on a ledge overlooking the Tuscan hills, this beautifully restored building and its accompanying annexe and pool house together make for an ideal retreat for a group of family or friends.

The charming annexe would suit grandparents or a nanny perfectly, giving them a little space and quiet to themselves, but being just moments away from the main property, a luxury Tuscan villa, with pool as well as all the facilities you would expect from a high-class hotel just a stroll away at the Rosewood Castiglion del Bosco estate's 'borgo'.

Inside Villa Stabbi, many of the original features have been kept to add a sense of history and charm, including rustic wooden ceiling beams and a traditional stone fireplace. Beautiful fabrics in muted colours adorn the living room and bedrooms for a sophisticated yet relaxed feel that is pure Tuscany!

The villa's charming living areas spill out onto the covered terrace, which allows you to eat at the al fresco dining table and relax in the outdoor armchairs even if there are a few spots of rain in the evening. Ask your chef to throw together some pizzas too be cooked in the outdoor oven – or have a go yourself, using vegetables straight from the estate's kitchen garden and local wines to wash it all down, of course.

Eating

Food and relaxation are the cornerstones of life at Villa Stabbi, so options are flexible to make life as easy for you as possible.

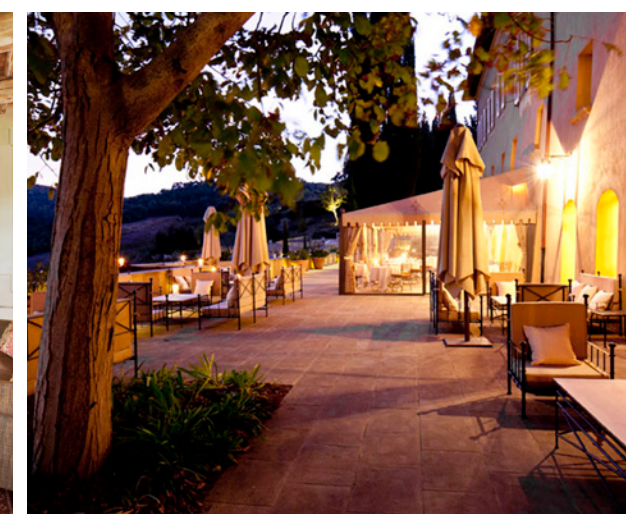

An in villa chef service gives you your own private chef and waiter so you can enjoy fabulous local cooking without leaving your villa. Your chef will be on hand to prepare everything from light lunches to five-course dinners and special occasion cooking.

The service is completely flexible.

The estate on which the luxury villa is situated is home to two wonderful eating spots, Ristorante Campo de Drago, which serves traditional Tuscan cuisine alongside the estate's own wines. The interiors are neutral and contemporary, and if you eat outside on the terrace you'll enjoy a wonderful view of the hills and woodland below. Then there is the more casual trattoria, Osteria La Canonica, ideal for a light lunch or a pizza in the evening. Both benefit from ingredients picked from the estate's own kitchen garden and a rustic, local menu.

There is also a delivery service to your villa if you prefer, which includes a kids' menu.

If you want to take a flavour of your holiday home with you, you can even take part in cookery classes at the estate's cookery school and learn how to make everything from Tuscan favourites to fresh pasta.

Kids

Children receive a warm, Italian welcome here and are made to feel right at home. The chef will be happy to prepare special child-friendly meals for you, or you can order from the kids' in-villa delivery menu.

The villa is blessed with lots of outdoor space for little ones to hare about in, and kids will love the infinity pool with its own pool house with bathroom and living area which means you don't have to leave the little ones unsupervised to go back to the house for showers and changes.

The estate has a fantastic kids' club, which can be accessed freely and provides a magical environment for imaginative minds to play and learn, enjoying everything from painting to treasure hunts. There are also structured lessons available in swimming, tennis, cookery, archery and much more besides – the astronomy sessions are a highlight.
