

Villa Willow Sardinia, Italy

What we love...

We love the amazing 270° view of the sea, with boats bobbing on the waters and deep blue wherever you look.

Cool and contemporary, light and bright, this luxury villa in Sardinia is strikingly stylish and designed to be just a little different from the average Sardinian seafront home.

The ultra-modern interiors are something to behold – clean lines, chrome, glass and shapely, white furniture combine to bounce the light around this spacious and airy property. The villa has huge windows that make the most of the 270° view of the sea, taking in the island of Tavolara and the bay, as well as a seemingly never-ending parade of little white boats bobbing on the waves.

The stunning living area has a white grand piano as its focal point, if you fancy tickling the ivories alongside a few cocktails! Low-slung white leather sofas make for easy lounging with a book while taking in the sea views. The glamorous dining area, with glass-topped table is a great spot to enjoy a meal indoors with friends on days when the al fresco eating areas are a little too chilly. A very well-appointed kitchen has all the mod cons you can imagine, and there is also a luxury, modern spa area with sauna and hammam, where you can pamper yourself in the privacy of your villa.

You'll find it hard to drag yourself outdoors but the sunny terrace to the front, lush gardens behind, barbecue spot, seating areas and swimming pool, all make outdoor living so easy, you can happily spend all day out here. There's no reason to decamp indoors before you've watched the sun set over the sea with a large glass of wine.

With direct access to the beach, as well as the port, town and marina just five minutes' drive away, this exclusive luxury villa couldn't be better placed to take in all that Sardinia has to offer.
