

Cervo Hotel Zermatt, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the innovative approach of Cervo, where traditional style is turned on its head. The luxurious private spa and piste-side location are big winners, and the adjacent restaurant is top notch.

Cervo is contemporary chic personified. Set high above the glamorous town of Zermatt, it is right by the Rothorn piste for an easy run home at the end of the day. Just relax and enjoy the luxurious private spa facilities, the excellent food and unbeatable views of the iconic Matterhorn.

Leave your preconceptions about ski holidays behind as you zoom up in the private lift that takes you to your mountain retreat. The Chalet Cervo concept is about living in one of their luxury ski chalet buildings all of which have individual rooms, clustered around a central hub containing the reception, a bar and lounge, and the highly regarded restaurant.

With a private minibus shuttling back and forth, and a team of housekeepers and helpful concierges on hand, the Cervo is a wonderful boutique hotel. Perhaps it is the altitude. That feeling of being on the top of the world, breathing pure, crisp mountain air. Whatever it is, Chalet Cervo feels like a revelation.

After an exhilarating day out on Zermatt's slopes, head for the terrace with a refreshing drink and watch the sunset spreading across the peaks. Before dinner you might like to spend some leisurely time in the spa area, complete with sauna, sanarium, outdoor whirlpool and relaxation area.

Or request a massage, a facial or other beauty treatments to make it a really pampering experience. Let the masseur soothe the aches and pains of the day away, as you gaze out through the snow-laden pine trees to the Matterhorn in the distance.

The Cervo chalet experience is refreshingly simple. The minibar has coffee, tea and mineral water, and the Gault Millau listed restaurant as well as a traditional Swiss alpine restaurant is a short stroll away. A team of attentive staff is on hand to look after you and make any arrangements you require. And perhaps the most unusual aspect of Chalet Cervo is that pets are welcome to stay too. So even Fido can have a great time in the mountains.

Kids

The sheer flexibility of a private chalet is ideal for family holidays. No need to worry about spreading out and making a mess – there's plenty of room, it's very private, and the cleaners come in every day. It's up to you how you want to feed the little ones. It's easy to whip up a simple children's meal in one of the chalet's kitchenettes, or you can take them across to the restaurant for a treat.

Zermatt is a magical resort that children will find enchanting. Horse drawn sleighs, twisting narrow streets – it has buckets of Swiss charm. And there's plenty for them to do, from tobogganing to ice skating. You can relax too, because all your logistical headaches can be dealt with by the Cervo's concierge service. Whatever you need to arrange, from ski passes to boot fittings to booking restaurants and activities – it's no problem.

Eating

Daily breakfast is included in the cost at this luxury ski hotel. This can be taken in the main Cervo restaurant or, as an extra treat it can be brought to the chalet. No other in-chalet catering is provided, but gourmet dining is right on the doorstep.
