

Chalech S Lech, Austria

What we love...

We love the wonderful spa facilities including a private Hammam and sauna in the chalet, plus shared access to an indoor swimming pool and gym.

Contemporary cosy is given a luxury makeover at this brand new chalet in Lech. Rich woods, sumptuous fabrics and designer lighting make this modern property a magical, snowy retreat that you'll love spending time in.

Just moments from the Schlosskopf piste, it's a superb location for those serious about skiing, but also just a wonderful spot in which to relax and spend time with friends and family.

The chic, open-plan living space has a fabulous feature fireplace at its heart, with room enough for everyone to gather around with a glass of bubbly in the early evenings. On one side of the fire is a contemporary seating area, with comfy sofas gathered sociably together. On the other side is an elegant dining space, which, twinkling with candlelight in the evenings, is a really special place to enjoy some fabulous food and fine wines with your favourite people.

Off the main living space is an impressive kitchen, where your chef will whip up delicious menus to tempt you and you can watch, with a glass of wine, or get stuck in yourself. Keen amateur cooks might like to take the chalet on a self-catered basis and make the most of the space themselves. There's also the snuggest of snugs you'll ever experience - the perfect spot to get together for an afternoon matinee as the snow falls outside (or station the kids in front of a movie while the grown-ups gather at champagne hour!).

Down on the ground floor is a spa, hammam and sauna where you can relax after a long morning on the slopes, easing away any aches and pains picked up during the day. Guests of Chalech S also have access to a fabulous shared swimming pool and sauna in the building.

At night, after you've eaten your fill and perhaps taken digestifs out onto the large balcony to take in that stunning mountain view and watch the lights twinkling over Lech, you'll retire to luxe bedrooms, fluffy gowns and slippers and delightfully cosy beds that will send you off into a deep sleep, dreaming of tomorrow's snowy adventures.

Eating

With its chefs plucked from the world's best Michelin-starred restaurants and super yachts, you're guaranteed to eat well at Chalet S.

Each morning, you'll wake to a delicious continental spread and your chef will also offer a selection of hot specials each day, which can be tailored to your tastes.

When you return from the slopes, a delicious spread of afternoon tea will be waiting for you, tempting you to over-indulge. If you have children who like to eat an early dinner, the chef can make them a separate meal, just the way they like it.

You'll just have time to make the most of the chalet's facilities and slip into something more glamorous before gathering for champagne and tempting canapés while your chef prepares your evening meal - three courses to suit your party's particular palettes, accompanied by a thoughtful selection of fine European wines and followed by a locally inspired cheeseboard and then digestifs or coffees around the fire.

On the chef's day off, your host will be happy to make restaurant bookings for you.

Kids

This luxury family-friendly ski chalet is a great choice for those with children of all ages. Older ones will enjoy using the shared swimming pool and gym (as well as the TV snug and integrated sound system) and for parents of younger children the open-plan layout and lift makes life that bit simpler.

The bunk room and flexibility of the twin/double rooms give you lots of options for accommodating children and cots and highchairs can be provided if required.

Staff will be on hand to help out in any way they can - we all know that children have to be well looked after for parents to be able to relax fully. Childcare can also be arranged on request.
