

Apartment Saana Verbier, Switzerland

What we love...

The ambient open plan dining and kitchen area, which are perfect for relaxing meals with your party, as the snow falls outside.

A central location plus the finest in contemporary design means that Apartment Saana in Verbier is ideal for a luxury ski holiday.

Conveniently arranged on the ground level of the exclusive Trois Roc development, which also houses the W hotel and a luxury shopping complex, Apartment Saana places you at the heart of the action in cosmopolitan Verbier.

The resort's exclusive bars, restaurants and boutiques are on your doorstep. But the ultimate proof of this luxury chalet's ideal location is that you can ski back from the slopes to within 200m of its grand entrance. Yet, once inside Apartment Saana is a haven of tranquillity. Timber framing combined with contemporary details set the scene for a stylish home away from home. Clean Scandi design, lifted with luxe fabrics and décor make it a joy to relax in. And relax you will – because Apartment Saana is ideal for much needed rest and rejuvenation. The open plan, ultra-modern kitchen, opens onto the spacious dining area, which is perfect for memorable meals with your party on your luxury ski holiday.

The large living area was designed with downtime in mind. Just picture yourself kicking off your snow gear before stealing away to the cosy sofas here, with glass of bubbly in hand, as the fire roars and the snow falls outside. Or you could settle yourself on the south-facing terrace, accessed by floor to ceiling sliding doors to take in the sunny mountain views.

Verbier is not just a winter destination. There's plenty to do during the warmer months, including cycling, golfing, riding, climbing and hiking to enjoy on a summer chalet holiday here.
