

Chalet Black Pearl Val d'Isère, France

What we love...

We love the refined, designer looks and top notch facilities of Chalet Black Pearl are a cut above the rest, and we love the cossetting service and chauffeured car.

Chic, designer boutique hotels have nothing on Chalet Black Pearl. As its name implies, this luxury ski chalet has a timeless allure, but it is also equipped with every modern convenience too.

From the moment you step inside, the luxury, pampered lifestyle begins. Enjoy a welcome glass of champagne served on arrival. Relax beside your private pool and be revived by an invigorating massage or watch a film in the cinema room.

Just like its adjacent sister chalet, Chalet Black Pearl occupies a superior position in Val d'Isère, with some of the best skiing in the Alps right on the doorstep. There's no need to lug heavy sports equipment around town either – chalet guests are able to make use of the in-resort shuttle service in the morning and afternoon.

Not only is Chalet Black Pearl a superb luxury ski chalet, but it's also an interior designer's dream come true. The refined Alpine chic style is extremely cool. Natural, pale wood, dove grey and charcoal hues are combined with elegant accessories to enchant the senses. It's all the creation of Philippe Capezzone – a highly regarded architect.

Whether you are looking for a party pad or a family treat, this luxury ski chalet in Val d'Isère ticks all the boxes.
