

Chalet Bouquetin Morzine, France

What we love...

We love the sunken outdoor hot tub on the terrace, with its amazing views.

Prepare to be spoiled! Chalet Bouquetin is a luxury ski chalet in Morzine in which every detail has been carefully considered to ensure your stay here is the epitome of luxe comfort.

The beautiful living areas are designed with an eclectic combination of industrial chic and Scandi style, giving the space a modern yet relaxed and comfortable feel. In the living area, oversized sofas are arranged around a fabulous three-metre-wide fireplace. It's easy to lose hours sitting here watching the flames dance and chatting with friends as your host tops up your drink.

Adjacent to the kitchen is a breakfast bar, where you can sit with an aperitif and enjoy canapés while watching your talented chef at work preparing your dinner, which is usually served at the refectory style table, looking out at wonderful mountain views. A spectacular backdrop to any meal.

The chalet, with cinema room complete with projector and electronically controlled 'Lazy Boy' chairs, is a great place to chill out of an afternoon. And if relaxation is top of your agenda, pad down to the sauna or take a book and some bubbly out onto the terrace and luxuriate in the sunken hot tub, which has stunning views of the surrounding mountains.

To ensure you sleep long and soundly, each bedroom is designed with comfort in mind and in a relaxing palette of neutrals, with puffy duvets and luxury bath products, because it's as often the little things that make a big difference.

With staff always on hand to refresh your glass, hand you your robe and ensure everyone is happy, a week at Chalet Bouquetin is not just a holiday but a total escape from reality.

Chalet Bouquetin

Rooms

Chalet Bouquetin sleeps 10 people across 5 bedrooms.

Bedrooms one and two: Double/twin bedrooms on first floor each with en-suite bathrooms.

Bedrooms three and four: Double/twin bedrooms on first floor with shared shower room and separate WC.

Bedroom five: Master bedroom on third floor with en-suite bathroom (open plan to room) with freestanding bathtub and walk-in shower and private balcony.

Eating

The chalet's private chef will ensure you are well fed and watered from the moment you wake to the moment your head hits the pillow. 'Wake-up' drinks are brought to your bedside each morning to ease you gently into the day. Choose from hot chocolate, tea, coffee or freshly squeezed juice. Downstairs, bacon and eggs await you, alongside pastries, bread and jams, porridge, cereals and fruit and yoghurts.

When you return from your day's skiing, afternoon tea with freshly baked cakes will be waiting ready to warm you through.

You'll have just enough time for a soak in the hot tub and to slip into something more glamorous before champagne and canapés are served, while your chef prepares you a delicious four-course dinner, always matched with a selection of house wines (a selection of fine wines are available at additional cost). The meal is rounded off with a cheeseboard and port and coffee.

If you prefer a low-key meal one evening your chef will be delighted to prepare delicious home comforts for a simpler option.

On the chef's nights off, your host will be happy to book a table for you in one of Morzine's wonderful eateries.

Chalet Bouquetin

Kids

Children are welcome at Chalet Bouquetin and older ones will enjoy the cinema room – perfect for a movie matinee on a chilly afternoon – as well as the Xbox.

The bedrooms are generously sized and the master suite in particular would be ideal for accommodating a cot.

The chef will be pleased to prepare a separate children’s tea to appeal to younger palates and nannies and babysitters can be arranged on request.

It’s worth noting that there are steps down to both the living room and the hot tub terrace which may prove tricky for newly mobile children.
