

Chalet Daria Val d'Isere, France

What we love...

We love the enormous south-facing terrace – the ideal spot to enjoy pre-dinner drinks with a fabulous view of the Vanoise National Park.

The perfect combination of super-convenient location and luxury living, this is a chalet just made for loafing in.

Celebrated architect Michel Covarel has created yet another luxury ski chalet in Val d'Isere with –spa facilities to die for in an unbeatable location.

Ski straight out the door and onto the blue Santons piste, which takes you down to the main lift station. Not a moment of your slopes time will be wasted here. And when your legs give in, there are easy returns on red, blue or black runs from either the Bellevarde or Solaise mountains, so you'll know it's always a swift journey back to the warm welcome of Chalet Daria.

Once you've abandoned your ski gear in the boots room, step inside the cosy but spacious living area and flop onto giant sofas with homemade cakes and steaming hot drinks.

After you've been restored by afternoon tea, you'll have time for a steam and a swim or perhaps a massage in the chalet's stunning spa area, then retreat to your room to pamper and preen before it's champagne o'clock.

Gather in front of the fire or out on the huge terrace with its wonderful views over pre-dinner drinks, while your talented chef puts together a three-course meal to remember in the lovely dining area, warm with rich woods and twinkling lights. Linger over dinner as late as you like, enjoying fine wines from the cellar, and quality time with friends and family. These are the moments that make wonderful memories.

Eating

Food and drink at Chalet Daria are as much of a thrilling ride as the skiing. Chalet Daria's champagne is delivered direct from a boutique house in the Grand Cru village of Ay.

The chalet's chefs are poached from the world's best super yachts, Michelin-starred restaurants and luxury villas and every meal is certain to be one you'll remember. Menus are imaginative and fun, using only the highest quality ingredients, local where possible.

But of course, if what you want is a steaming bowl of comfort food on the sofa, you have only to say.

To accompany your evening meal, the chalet's staff have carefully selected a cellar of wines that will complement every dish perfectly. Spirits are included also and you may upgrade to premium spirits and order specific wines at an additional cost if you wish.

Whatever your choices, you can be sure of being well fed here. Each morning, you'll be woken to a delicious cooked breakfast as well as pastries and lighter options. On your return from the slopes an afternoon tea of fresh fruit and freshly baked cakes awaits.

Your talented chef will prepare you a three-course extravaganza on five evenings, tailored to your party's particular wishes. On two nights, your chalet host can help you choose and book a restaurant, or arrange for a cosy night in with a takeaway.

If you have children in your group the chef will be pleased to prepare an earlier tea for them to enable everyone to relax over their meals.
