

Chalet Denali Zermatt, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the beautiful private spa area on the top floor with a Hammam and large indoor Jacuzzi.

A fabulous property requires a fantastic location and both are here in spades at Chalet Denali. Situated close to the centre of town, in one of the area's most prestigious developments, this luxury ski chalet in Zermatt could not be more ideally placed.

And every last luxury has been thought of here, from the rain showers in each en-suite bathroom to the state-of-the-art fitness equipment. Staff are on hand to ensure you never need lift a finger and every care has been taken in the design of this stunning chalet so that life here is always stress-free. When you get back from the slopes, drop off your ski gear in the ski room, then allow the lift to whizz you up to all five floors of Chalet Denali.

On afternoons, when your skiing day is finished, this property is like a stylish sanctuary. Lounge in the Jacuzzi hot tub with your friends (there's room for 20!), enjoy a soothing massage or steam, or take a yoga class in the dedicated yoga studio. If there's time once you've emerged from your spa cocoon, why not pop into the cinema room for a movie matinee? Or spend a few hours curled up in the library with a good book and your own excellent company.

But this is also a chalet that was designed with socialising in mind. Built for partying as well as enjoying more intimate gatherings, the living and dining spaces are wonderful places to catch up with friends and loved-ones and relive all the best moments of the day, while your private chef whips up meals you'll remember for a long time after.

After dinner, we recommend you take drinks out onto the beautiful terraces that overlook the Matterhorn. The views here need to be experienced to be believed; no photograph really does them justice. And late at night, when you're out on the terrace with just a glass of good wine and the imposing mountain for company, there's no better place to be.

When you all retire to your rooms at the end of each day, it's to only the most luxurious of linens, softest of pillows and bathrooms that are each like a mini spa experience themselves. To say you won't want to leave is an understatement. We think you'll have re-booked before your holiday is over.
