

Chalet Du Cret Val d'Isere, France

What we love...

We love the fabulous children's playroom. With a grass floor and climbing walls as well as lots to keep them entertained, this room makes this luxury ski chalet a real winner for families.

Nestled in the ancient hamlet of Cret is this gem of a property. You'd never guess today that this luxury ski chalet near Val d'Isere was once a cheese farm run by the local monks, but the property still retains original features, which have been painstakingly preserved and restored to life. From the rustic wooden beams and stone walls to the stunning chapel, nestled in the private garden.

The chalet may have its roots in 1632 but it's been brought bang up to date with works of contemporary art and all the latest gadgets, to make it the ideal snowy retreat for a luxury ski holiday.

At the heart of the chalet is the inviting double-height living room with mezzanine looking over it. This large open-plan space comprises a cosy dining area, fabulous seating area with bar and an open fire, ideal for gathering around with friends and catching up on the day's events over drinks and canapes.

Each of the double bedrooms is beautifully designed with unique touches that make each room a retreat of its own and luxury bathrooms so that every morning is like a spa trip.

Talking of which, there's no better place to while away an afternoon after a morning's skiing than in the wellness suite, relaxing in the hot tub or enjoying a steam or sauna.

The property is ideally located, close to some of the area's best skiing as well as the fashionable bars and boutiques of Val d'Isere. But placed just a little outside the hustle and bustle, up here on one of Le Cret's beautiful balconies, admiring the mountain views, it's simply stunning.

Eating

This luxury ski chalet is served by a professional chef who will be on hand throughout your stay to keep you well fed and watered.

You'll enjoy a breakfast spread each day to set you up for the slopes, and when you return a warming afternoon tea will be ready and waiting for you.

Menus are planned weekly and the chef will be happy to incorporate any family favourites, likes or dislikes. The food is generally haute cuisine style with a rustic vibe, but can be as luxury or as laid-back as you like.

The wines are sourced from top French vineyards in the Autumn to complement the winter menus but you can also browse the wine cave or ask the chef for the best wine to accompany your meals. With an open bar to include selected spirits and soft drinks too, everyone can enjoy their favourite tippale at this luxury ski chalet.

Kids

Children will be in seventh heaven here. The highlight of this luxury ski chalet for kids is surely the children's TV den with 'grass' floors and climbable walls – the perfect place to burn off energy when it's cold outside. Having said that there's a wonderful garden outside that is perfect for snowman-building and snowball fights, too.

All of the king-size bedrooms can be converted into twin rooms, making the property ideal for a group with children. While the adults are enjoying canapes and drinks in the evening, children will be kept busy with the cinema system and TV, DVD player. There's also a selection of films to choose from at the chalet too.

Nannies and babysitters can be arranged on request at this luxury ski chalet.
