

Chalet Genepi Morzine, France

What we love...

We love the two generous entertaining spaces, giving everyone room to do as they please.

Space to play, space to share, space to relax. This luxury self-catered ski chalet in Morzine really does have something for everyone, making it a great property to share with friends and family.

Chalet Genepi is chic and stylish and has not one but two fabulous entertainment spaces, one on the ground floor complete with bar, TV area, blackboard wall for bringing out the artist in you and a pool table; and another, more peaceful, space on the top floor with large sofas gathered round a fire, just begging you to stretch out with the papers or sit down for a catch-up with friends over a bottle of wine.

Adjacent to the top floor living space is an open-plan kitchen and dining area, with its vaulted ceilings, twinkling copper lighting and comfortable refectory seating providing a space that's just perfect for long, sociable dinners (and many bottles of wine) late into the evening.

Outside, the decking area has views of the Pleney piste and an outdoor living space, so you can make the most of this fabulous location with chairs to swing in and lounge on. Whether you're taking out your morning coffee or enjoying a bottle of bubbly in the outdoor hot tub, the mountain air and view from the terrace will transform any everyday moment into something special.

Every care has been taken here to ensure your stay is utterly stress-free and magical at every turn, from the well-designed ski and boot room to the beautiful lighting in the stunning stair wells. For rest and relaxation, not to mention world-class skiing, you'd have to go a long way to find a chalet like Genepi.
