

Chalet M

Courchevel 1550, France

What we love...

We love the sunny terrace that has a panoramic view of the mountains – the perfect spot to enjoy a glass of wine under a furry throw.

Designed using natural materials, driftwood, stone and wool, Chalet M reflects the natural beauty of the mountains that surround it. This luxury ski chalet in Courchevel 1550 is perfectly located and stunningly executed, with a sophisticated and relaxed atmosphere that exudes calm and quiet.

The chalet itself is built from reclaimed wood that once stood as barns on the surrounding lands, which gives the property a particular warmth and character. Long sofas in the cosy sitting room are positioned around the roaring fire. Sit in the toasty warm, snuggled under blankets with hot drinks after a morning on the slopes and watch the snow continue to swirl outside on the mountain.

The five bedrooms are each designed with an individual 'snowy' theme, from polar bears and reindeer to snowflakes. Super comfy beds and spa-style ensembles make each room a private retreat. This luxury chalet has an outdoor hot tub so you can spend the afternoons simply easing aching muscles with a drink from the bar. A home cinema and garden provide space for the children to escape to and enjoy themselves while you relax.

If you feel like escaping your mountain retreat for a little while, this private gated property is still only steps from the centre of Courchevel Village, so everything is right on your doorstep.
