

Chalet Mimi Lech, Austria

What we love...

We love the wellness area with indoor swimming pool, steam bath, sauna, outdoor Jacuzzi and massage room.

On any luxury ski holiday, what you need most after an adventurous day on the slopes is a truly stunning and supremely comfortable bolthole to retire to. And Chalet Mimi won't disappoint.

This chic, stylish luxury ski chalet in Lech is a fabulous base from which to explore all the area has to offer - which, happily, includes some of the biggest and most exclusive skiing areas in Austria - all in a ski-in/ski-out property.

Staff are on hand to ensure you and your party are always well looked after, from preparing a delicious breakfast to see you out onto the slopes, to keeping your wine glass topped up over dinner with exquisite wines from the chalet's own cellar.

Chalet Mimi has wonderful entertaining spaces, perfect for either a party or just for you and your fellow guests to relax and catch up after a day out on the snow. In the sophisticated living room, clad in dark woods, capacious sofas are gathered around a statement fireplace. Behind is a bar where your butler can mix you something delicious to enjoy out on the large balcony after dinner, and nearby a cosy dining space, big enough to seat everyone but small enough to feel intimate. Additionally, there is a TV lounge, an entertainment area, and an art room. It's the perfect spot for a special gathering of friends or family.

But equally, if you need a little quiet time alone, there's plenty of that to be found here, too. One whole floor of the chalet is given over to a beautiful spa, with a stunning swimming pool, Jacuzzi, sauna and hammam, as well as a massage room. Therapists can be booked on request to soothe any aching muscles post-slopes or just to pamper and relax you into a holiday state of mind.
