

Chalet Pure Black Crystal Saint Martin de Belleville

What we love...

We love the swimming pool and relaxing spa area.

There's no fireside seat more cosy than one overlooking a snowy mountain, and the capacious, comfy sofas here at Chalet Pure Black Crystal are no exception.

In fact, the whole chalet just shouts 'Welcome!' at you from the moment you walk in the door. The open-plan living space has, at its centre, a fabulous statement fireplace, which faces out into the seating area so you can warm your toes as you watch skiers hurtling down the mountain outside.

This huge space has been designed to feel both contemporary and airy and cosy at the same time - ceilings of varying heights create 'zones' within the open-plan living space, so you can curl up in the intimacy of the sitting area with a book, or spread out under the fabulous chandeliers in the kitchen and dining spaces. It's a really clever use of the generous floor area, allowing you both cosy nooks to catch up with friends in as well as wonderful entertaining spaces ideal for a party.

And if you fancy a moment of quiet reflection to yourself, simply step out onto the outdoor terrace for a breath of mountain air - and even a Nordic bath!

For those who like their wellbeing a little more relaxing and a little less bracing, this luxury ski chalet in St Martin de Belleville also has a beautiful spa, complete with swimming pool, relaxation area and massage room. It's a lovely way to recharge after an energetic morning on the slopes.

And when, once you're full of gourmet food and fine wines, and you're ready to retire for the evening, you'll find nowhere better to curl up than one of Chalet Pure Black Crystal's luxe bedrooms, designed with thick carpets, natural woods and only the softest of pillows and duvets, to ensure a great night's sleep.

Eating

Your private chef will ensure glasses are always charged and tummies are always satisfied at Chalet Pure Black Crystal. Each morning, a delicious breakfast will have you ready for an energetic day on the mountain and when you return to your luxury ski chalet afternoon tea will be ready and waiting.

Each evening, your chef will provide a gourmet meal that you and your fellow guests can linger over long into the night. Whether you want local specialities, good old comfort food or anything in between, your wish is their command. Selected wines are served with the meal and if you're after something a bit special you are welcome to see what's in the chalet's cellar.

Please note food and drink are charged for separately at the end of your stay.
