

Chalet Queen Mijane Meribel Village, France

What we love...

We love the 'Wellbeing Floor' in the basement with a swimming pool, stone Hammam and massage treatment room.

Enclosed by pine trees and mountains, this luxury ski chalet with swimming pool in a quiet part of Meribel Village feels like a real retreat from the world, despite being only metres from the tracks.

The impressive, architect-designed building is located close to shops and restaurants as well as the slopes and there's a free shuttle to the centre of town every 15 minutes, so you're within easy reach of everything Meribel has to offer.

An abundance of space and light makes this a really wonderful location for a group ski holiday. There's room for everyone both to find a little space for some peace, but also plenty of open-plan spaces that are simply made for socialising.

The delightful living room, decorated in muted tones, and featuring a piano, is a lovely place to sit and catch up on all the events of the day. And just beyond the fabulous stone fireplace is a dining space that is just calling out for long, convivial dinners that go on far too late into the night.

A well-equipped kitchen will keep foodies happily occupied in the afternoons, using all the gizmos and gadgets provided to cook up a storm for your whole party. Whether you want traditional Savoyard fare or a simple barbecue out on the terrace, everything you'll need is provided.

Chalet Queen Mijane's wonderful facilities, make it practically a spa destination in its own right. The wellbeing floor, which takes up the entire bottom floor of this exclusive ski chalet in Meribel, is a real gem: a tranquil swimming pool takes centre stage, and is complimented by a Hammam, seating six adults, a massage room, relaxation space, WC and an Italian-style shower. You could easily chill out down here all afternoon, soothing aching legs after a morning's skiing and pampering yourself in advance of the evening's festivities.

Each evening, full of good food, happy memories and the joy of a day breathing in the mountain air, you'll retire to bedrooms that simply ooze comfort from every corner. Wrap yourself in thick duvets, snuggle into luxury pillows and catch some high-quality sleep ready for another fun-filled day in the morning.

Eating

When you arrive on your luxury ski holiday you'll find a welcome basket and Champagne ready and waiting for you.

Each morning at Chalet Queen Mijane, you'll wake to a delicious breakfast cooked and served by your housekeeper, to set you up for a day on Meribel's slopes.

For those who require it, a private chef service can also be arranged, but we think you'll love the chance to cook in this very sociable and well-equipped kitchen, which comes with everything you could wish for, from Nespresso machine to raclette and fondue machines. Keen amateur chefs will be in their element here - there's even a barbecue so you can make the most of the chalet's beautiful terrace.

Meribel has a fantastic selection of restaurants should you choose to eat out. We love La Grand Coeur and Chez Kiki but you're sure to find your own favourites you'll become regulars at. A grocery shop delivery can also be arranged so everything you need is here when you arrive.

Please note that breakfast provisions will be charged for separately at the end of your stay but the service for breakfast is included.

Kids

This luxury ski chalet is a wonderful choice for families, with so much space for everyone to holiday together happily. The last thing you want on a break with both kids and grown-ups, maybe even grandparents, in tow is to be living on top of each other and that's never a danger at Chalet Queen Mijane.

When they're not on the slopes, they'll certainly love splashing around in the private indoor swimming pool, so don't forget to pack swimmers!

There's also a dedicated kids' bunk room, so in the evening, smaller guests can snuggle down in bed for an evening of whispering just a little bit too late under the duvet, while the grown-ups enjoy a leisurely dinner.
