

Chalet Sisimiut Courchevel 1550, France

What we love...

The stunning and quirky swim-in/swim-out pool which is accessed from inside the chalet but stretches outside – the ideal spot for relaxing under the stars after a long day on the slopes.

The eclectic interior design at this luxury ski chalet in Courchevel 1550 is the gift that keeps on giving. Everywhere you turn at Chalet Sisimiut, you'll spot something new and fabulous – from the multi-coloured S-shaped sofa in the spacious living area to the quirky fox adorned bedroom wallpaper.

Modern art meets classic touches such as the vintage skis decorating one of the bathroom suites. Stretching over three floors and with each room exuding its own unique style, this luxury chalet with swimming pool is a true one off.

Located in the peaceful hamlet of Hamlet of Marcandou, Chalet Sisimiut is a short shuttle ride to both the village centre and the slopes. The village is conveniently linked by a fast chairlift to Courchevel 1850, with blue runs back into the village, so you're well connected at all times.

But you'd be forgiven for rarely venturing from this Alpine bolthole. Available on a self-catered basis and the stylish, the well-equipped kitchen offers all you need. Fresh bread and pastry deliveries can also be arranged, along with grocery deliveries and the services of a professional chef.

After a long day on the slopes, retreat to Chalet Sisimiut's private hammam or take a dip in the refreshing heated swimming pool. Accessed indoors from the ground floor, the clever design sees it stretch along the exterior of this luxury chalet.

After a relaxing swim under the stars, gather for dinner en famille around the grand dining table, complete with quirky mismatched chairs. This luxury chalet was designed with fun in mind. You can't help but feel at home from the moment you walk through the grand doors, help yourself to a glass of something bubbly and drink in those majestic Alpine views.
