

Chalet Tataali Morzine, France

What we love...

We love the entertaining extras that you won't find in other chalets - tiered seating in the cinema room, climbing wall, slide and even monkey bars.

Stylish, welcoming and full of fun, this luxury ski chalet in Morzine is a fabulous base for a group of friends or family to enjoy some of the best skiing in the world in winter or simply relax and explore the Alps in summer.

As you'd expect, Chalet Tataali has all the little luxuries you could wish for, from cinema room and spa complete with hammam, sauna, hot tub and pool, to wine cellar and boot room.

But what makes this luxury ski holiday truly magical is the imaginative, mischievous additions you won't find anywhere else - a climbing wall to explore, monkey bars in the well-equipped games room and a twirly tube slide that takes you from the entrance floor and whizzes you straight to the games room. They've even added a swing above the swimming pool because why would you not have a swing? With all that, plus table football, a pool table and lots more to keep everyone entertained, there is definitely never a dull moment at Chalet Tataali.

But this luxury ski chalet is just as effective as a relaxing retreat, too. The stylish spa area, with vaulted wooden ceiling and daylight flooding in from above is a wonderful space to lose oneself in for a couple of hours, and each of the luxury bedrooms is a little cocoon in which to rest and recharge. Wander out onto the terraces, take a few breaths of the mountain air, take in the views and listen to the babbling of the river nearby, and you'll soon be feeling completely at peace.

The chalet's staff are always on hand, ensuring you never lift a finger and that every meal is memorable, every moment a little bit special. No glass is left empty for long and no pillow left unplumped. Tataali is a proper tonic.

Eating

A champagne and canape reception is held at a time of your choosing to get you into the holiday spirit.

Chalet Tataali is renowned for its 'Breakfast Club', with a selection of hot options to choose from. A reduced menu is offered on the chef's days off and a continental spread will be laid out for you.

On your return, afternoon tea will be waiting, including freshly made sweet and savory tarts from an artisan patisserie to take the edge off your hunger.

To allow you to make the most of your stay, a luxury dining plan is drawn up for you, to include one evening of Kaiseiki, a six-course Japanese fine-dining experience; an evening at Chef's Table to try a six-course tasting menu with matched wines, designed to showcase the chefs' skills; two 'gourmet' dinners designed especially for your group and one relaxed dining evening.

On two evenings, your chalet host will be happy to recommend and book a restaurant or help arrange a delivery of freshly made pre-prepared meals to the chalet (at additional cost) on chef's nights off.

Wines, artisan beers, spirits and house prosecco are available throughout your stay.

Kids

This is a house with a two-storey slide in it - children are going to love this place! The property includes a climbing wall as well as monkey bars in the playroom. Between these and the skiing, all children should be nicely exhausted by the end of each day.

For older children, there's a football table and pool table to keep them all busy on afternoons away from the slopes. And of course there's the wonderful cinema room where they can enjoy a movie matinee.

Your chef will also be happy to provide an early evening children's tea.

Nannies and babysitters can be arranged on request.

Location

Chalet Tataali is located at the start of the Vallee de la Manche, an idyllic and private location yet only moments from the centre of Morzine.

Your in-resort chauffeur will drive you to and from the ski lifts each day. This takes a couple of minutes to the nearest lift at Nyon or 5mins to the Pleney, both from which you can access the Morzine-Les Gets sector; or 5 mins to Prodains, which takes you straight to Avoriaz.

The centre of Morzine is approx. 3mins drive or 25mins lovely walk along the river path. In good snow conditions, intermediate skiers can ski from the chalet to the nearby cross country trail which leads to the Nyon lift.

The nearest airport is Geneva, approx. 1hr 20mins drive.
